Cream Of Chorus Girl Crop To Be At State Thursday

Those beautiful chorines who were the cream of the chorus girl crop can be seen in "George White's Scandals"—the comedy-musical opening at the State theatre Thursday.

Starring Joan Davis, the "Queen of Comedy" the picture will top the laugh-meter of any show house by a thousand. It's a scream sensation which tells of the rebirth of the "scandals" and how things do get tied in knots. This is especially true when the daughter of a former "scandals" girl who married an English nobleman, comes back to cop the lead in the show.

The cartoon sequence of the film "Anchors Aweigh" now showing at the Ohio theatre is sensational. Never before, except on rare occasions, have moving picture producers been able to superimpose a living person in a cartoon but in this film, Gene Kelly actually dances with Jerry the mouse of the Tom and Jerry cartoons. It's as cute as a bug and shows the remarkable steps made in the production of the films.

During the war, a mere mention of the word espionage, sabotage, spies or anything else delicately relating to the welfare of this country sent cold chills up and down almost everyone's spine. The Federal Bureau of Investigation was able to uncover a lot of the spy hangouts, but without the aid of some faithful citizens, these might never have been cracked. In the picture, "The House on 92nd Street" with William Eythe, the story of this underhanded way of attacking a country is uncovered with many instances, now in the files of the FBI, shown.

General Eisenhower will tell you of the horrors of war in "True Story" the filmization of the European war. It's not colored with words to have you believe that it wa sanything but horrible, it's the honest to goodness, down-to-earth story of the things that each American man faced everytime he set his foot ahead of him. Sharing the billing is "Man Alive"

A "Vampire Ghost"—soundsawful, doesn't it. but that's exactly the name of the film currently showing at the Lyric theatre. If your blood doesn't freeze in your veins ,then you must be running a temperature for this is a mystery thriller to end all mystery thrillers. Sharing the bill is an equal blood-curdling picture, "Phantom Speaks."

Bob Livingston has the lead in "Wild Horse Rustlers" the film now showing at the Allen theatre. All western fans will find a lot of enjoyment in seeing this picture. Its co-feature is "Revenge of the Zombies."

During normal years, more shotgun shell sare fired at rabbits than at any other North American game. The rabbit also furnishes more meat for sportmen than any other animal.

High Waves Hit Alaskan City

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, Oct. 31—(UP)—Martial law as reported declared in Nome, Alaska, today to organize relief agencies after the town had been pounded by ocean waves nine feet high whipped by cyclonic winds.

The U. S. Weather Bureau reported winds over the Bering Sea as high as 65 miles an hour. The nine-foot waves rolled along Main-st and lapped at the walls of the Federal-bldg on North sound about 75 feet from the sea. The winds have died down, the weather bureau said. No loss of life was reported but damage was thought to be high.

Gene Stratton Porter wrote four books that sold over 1,500,000 copies each, a record unequalled by any other American author.

U. S. Recognizes Venezulean Rule

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31—(AP)—The United States today recognized the revolutionary government of Venezuela after consultations with other American governments.

The state department issued this statement: "The Secretary of State, James F. Byrnes announced this afternoon that the government of the United States has extended full recognition to the government of Venezuela which is now organized under Senor Romulo Betancourt."

The revolution, which occurred only 10 days ago, overthrew Gen. Isaias Medina Angarita, president of Venezuela. Betancourt is one of a group of young army officers who claim the revolution was to insure more democratic political practices in Venezuela.

Eddie Cantor To Celebrate Radio's 25th Anniversary

Eddie Cantor showcases radio's outstanding milestones in observance of its 25th anniversary in "The Eddie Cantor Show" to be heard at 9 p. m. Wednesday over WEAF.

The banjo-eyed comedian will review radio's developments, comedy trends and musical highlights from the time of its beginning, a quarter of a century ago, up to and including the latest wrinkles, in radio showmanship.

Is the common housecat a serious menace to game birds? The answer to that question, and to several others sent in by listeners, will be given by Jim Hurley, Dave Newell and a pair of guest experts on the "Fishing and Hunting Club of the Air," in its broadcast at 8:30 p. m. over WJZ.

More than 1,500 wounded servicemen from all theatres of war will be entertained by Kay Kyser, the Ol' Professor, and his "College of Musical Knowledge" when they broadcast from the auditorium of the Army's Vaughn General hospital, outside Chicago, Ill., at 9 p. m. Wednesday over WEAF.

Bert Wheeler and his Sunnydale friends join the spirit of Halloween fun making at 8:30 p. m. Wednesday over station WOR. It's a party at Bert's house, with ghost stories, bobbing apples and funny faces by all attending on the progrgam.

Jane Cowl, one of America's greatest ladies of the theatre, will re-create a scene from her greatest success, "Smilin' Thru," and receive the Green Room Award on the Andrews Sisters Show "Musical Show Room" at 10 30 p. m. Wednesday over WABC.

Hotel managers, under pressure for hush money find themselves involved in a shakedown racket in "The Case of the Death A La Carte" during the "Mr. District Attorney" program at 9.30 p. m. Wednesday over WEAF.

Claiming that poisoned food was sent to their room, a discredited nurse and her young girl traveling companion threaten to tell the newspapers if the hotel manager doesn't pay off.
