Funny Bones Get A Workout At Laurel And Hardy's Antics

Better stock up on extra funny bones for Laurel and Hardy are on the loose again, this time in "The Bullfighters," the hilarious hit open ing Monday at the Lyric theatre, which is being haled as the screen's No. 1 laugh team's most riotous hit yet.

The firm finds Stan and Ollie as a pair of misfit matadors south of the Rio Grande where, to the clink of castanets, the lure of dazzling senoritas, and the roar of bullfighting fans howling for blood, they race thru one side-splitting situation after another to establish the laugh record of the year.

"Weekend At The Waldorf" is thrilling audiences still at the Ohio theatre. With four great stars, Lana Turner, Ginger Rogers, Walter Pidgeon and Van Johnson, the picture is certain to be good. Telling of the experiences of these four people who spent a week-end in the world's most fubulous hotel, the Waldorf Astoria in New York, you'll laugh and cry at some of the instances which · The Quilna is stepping out in front of all mystery pictures with what is perhaps the most exciting film of the year. It's the film version of Agatha Christie's famous "And Then There Were None" and if your teeth don't chatter while you view this breathtaking film, then something is wrong somewhere. Sharing the billing is "Come Out Fighting" with the Dead End Kids.

At the Sigma theatre is the picture "Stagedoor Canteen," the movie that has been drawing large clowds since its opening Saturday. The film has been returned te the theatre thru popular 1equest because of its heart appeal and you will learn why when you see the film.

"The Story of GI Joe"-the real down-to-earth story of the fellow in the infantry who has to "squish" thru mud to get where he's going only to be held up because of some order not to go thru. This is the story told in part by Ernie Pyle, the late "peopie's columnist." Sharing the bill 18 "Radio Stars On Parade."

"From The Halls of Montezuma"—yes, that's the beginning of the Marine Hymn sung since 1775 when the first Marine Corps atic, you will see why it does so. You can see it in the film "Salute To The Marines," stairing Wallace

Big-Time Political Tactics Used On Joan Davis Show

Joan Davis goes in for big-time political tactics and calls in famous speaker George Jessel to make the keynote speech for her candidate for mayor on "The Joan Davis Show" to be heard at 8:30 p. m. Monday over WABC.

The "Queen of Comedy" runs into difficulties when her candidate, Harry von Zell, challenges the opposition candidate to a debate, and when Harry's financial "angel" writes a song titled "Vote For of Purdue university, and one of
