

Fred Allen Show At Sigma More Fun Than Flea Circus

There's more fun than a "flea circus" at the Sigma theatre Tuesday when "It's In The Bag" with Fred Allen opens for several days showing. Fred Allen is cast for the first time in a film and is helped out by "his old pals, Jack Benny, Don Ameche, William Bendix and Victor Moore. Fred, operator of a flea circus, is informed that his great-uncle has died and left him the sole heir to a huge fortune so he moves his family into New York's swankiest penthouse. From here on the fun really begins with Fred in all of it.

Speaking of swanky penthouses, "Weekend at the Waldorf," the film now showing at the Ohio theatre, shows the penthouse of the Waldorf Astoria hotel in New York. Very little action is filmed about this swank place, but much is filmed in the dining room of the hotel. The film is terrific with such stars as Lana Turner, Walter Pidgeon, Ginger Rogers and Van Johnson heading the cast.

If it's mystery you crave, then you will find plenty in the film "And Then There Were None" currently playing at the Quilna theatre. The film involves 10 people in one of the most blood-curdling murder films ever brought to Lima. If you don't want the hair on your head to stand straight up, then you'd better wear a hat.

There are only a couple of more days left in which you may see "The Story of GI Joe" with Burgess Meredith as Ernie Pyle. Taken from the experiences recorded in Pyle's book, "This Is Your War," the picture brings back to folks on the home front, the actual story of the guy at the war front. Here's one you'll not want to miss. The picture is currently playing at the State theatre.

Fun, fun, and more fun is to be found in "The Bullfighters" which will show at the Allen theatre Tuesday night and Wednesday will bring in two pictures of equal interest—"Man of Conquest" and "Marked Trails."

GANDHI'S MOST FAMOUS CONVERT DESERTS HIM

LONDON, Nov. 6—(UP)—A News Chronicle dispatch from Bombay said today that Mohandas K. Gandhi's famous English convert, Madeline Slade, daughter of a British admiral, had deserted his household after falling in love with another disciple who had turned Communist.

Miraben, as she was known in the household, was reported to have started her own Ashram in the Himalayan foothills when Gandhi objected to her love affair because of the celibacy rule.

One-third of the area of the United States is forested.

Boris Karloff Heard Tuesday On "Inner Sanctum" Air Show

Screen star Boris Karloff tops off his third guest ghoul appearance behind Your Host Paul McGrath's creaking door by a living murder's nightmare in "The Wailing Wall," an eerie "Inner Sanctum" mystery to be broadcast at 9 p. m. Tuesday over station WABC.

Forty years of hearing strange sounds emerging from the well where he hid his wife's corpse, provides a weird serenade to the anguish of a man who murdered for money.

Alan (Black Out) Young, recuperating from last week's Halloween pranks, flies right into another tall spin with his one-and-only during the "Alan Young Show" heard at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday over WJZ.

Needing his noodle for a clever way to get back at wealthy Hubert Updick III, he comes up with a hair brain scheme, which—yes you guessed it—backfires as usual. Finding himself behind the eight-ball with everyone including his girl, he decides that the life of a hermit wouldn't be so bad after all.

There is an air of expectancy when Aunt Lily and her husband drop in to visit the Fosters for "A Date With Judy" in the comedy-drama broadcast at 8:30 p. m.
