HARTFORD, Conn. - (U.P.) -Clemency petitions of two Ringling Brothers Barnum and Bailey circus officials were denied Tuesday by the state board of pardons, which ruled the men must finish one to five year prison terms for manslaughter imposed as result of the Hartford circus fire of July, 1944, in which 168 died.

Circus General Manager George W. Smith and Chief Canvasman Leonard S. Aylesworth began serving their time last June 7 and have about three months to go before completing their minimum terms. Clemency was sought on grounds they had "experienced untold suffering for the victims of
