Two Hits Billed To Open B HELLO CEAR! On State Screen Thursday

Two films, which received top billing when played for the first time in New York, have returned to Lima for a command performance, figuratively speaking, at the State theatre.

The films are "The Very Thought of You" with Dennis Morgan and Eleanor Parker and "Arsenic and Old Lace" with Priscilla Lane and Cary Grant. Both pictures are screams of hilarity yet the former is handled in a tender manner. The movies will begin a run at the State theatre Thursday.

Keep it under your hat! That has been the plea to movie fans ever since the film "Mildred Pierce," starring Joan Crawford and Zachary Scott, opened at the Ohio theatre. Keep the end of the picture under your hat or it's liable to ruin the film for someone else.

in their teens or a little younger. you'll appreciate the film, "Kiss and Tell" now showing at the Quilna theatre. Shirley Temple and Jerome Courtland handle their roles, excellently and you really have an opportunity to get on the inside of what happens at a home where there are ten-agers. Sharing the bill is "Shanghai Bubb Abbott and Lou Costello virtually tear Hollywood apart in their latest film "In Hollywood" now playing at the Sigma theatre. You'll laugh until you ache with the antics of these two scream-

Robert Taylor narrates the story of "The Fighting Lady" in the film of the same name now showing at the Lyric theatre. Jimmy Wakely shares the bill in Esther Williams leads Red Skelton a merry chase in "Bathing Beauty" now playing at the Allen theatre. When Red tries to enter a girls' school and is permitted to do so, then things really start to happen.

Mr. And Mrs. North To Guest On "Ellery Queen" Air Show

Mr. and Mrs. North will make a neighborly social call on another private detective when they broadcast as guest armchair sleuths on the Ellery Queen program, "The Adventure of the Happy Marriage," at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday over the Columbia Broadcasting System. Last week, the Norths were annoyed when Ellery Queen made surprise appearance on their comedy-mystery show and solved the murder case before the did. Ellery is now giving them a chance to retaliate, for as Queen armchair sleuths the Norths have the opportunity to crack the case before Ellery does.

Then the Norths will turn right around to their own program and solve another murder. A piece of shrewd detective work by Pamela North solves a case of double murder and locates a missing $100,000 fortune on the "Adventures of Mr. and Mrs. North" at 8 p. m. Wednesday over the National Broadcasting Company's network. A Frenchman returns to America in search of a girl who as holding the 00 grand for him. He hires a detective who promptly gets killed. Simultaneously a GI Joe becomes a civilian and implores his sister to help him locate his wife . . . and that in turn adds to the mystery of

Ish Kabibble, the comedy poet and philosopher with the mixing bowl haircut, has been discharged from the Army and will rejoin Kay Kyser and his "College of Musical Knowledge" when they broadcast from the Army's Biggs Field at El Paso, Texas, at 10 p. m. Wednesday over NBC. The Andrews Sisters will make a guest appearance on Frank Sinatha's program at 9 p. m. Wednesday over CBS. Axel Stordahl will conduct the orchestra and the Pied Pipers will contribute their distinctive vocal arrangements to the performance which will be produced and directed by Mann Holiner.
