

"Love Letters" Makes Debut With Rousing Acclaim Friday.

Are you in the mood for a picture that is haunting and appealing—one that will remain with you for days? If you are, don't miss the latest production of one of Hollywood's ace studios, "Love Letters" opening at the Ohio theatre Friday.

The dramatic story of the film is very unusual. You'll talk about the strange romance of a girl who dared not remember her past, of a man who wrote love letters to a girl he never met, not realizing they would mean haunting terror to him, disaster to her, and violent death to the man who used them to win her heart.

A couple of "oldies" will be ushered in at the Quilna theatre Friday, but, from the remarks this reviewer has been hearing lately, will not go unheralded. Many folks are expressing, verbally, their pleasure in knowing that "Hurricane" starring Dorothy Lamour and Jon Hall, has been brought back to Lima.

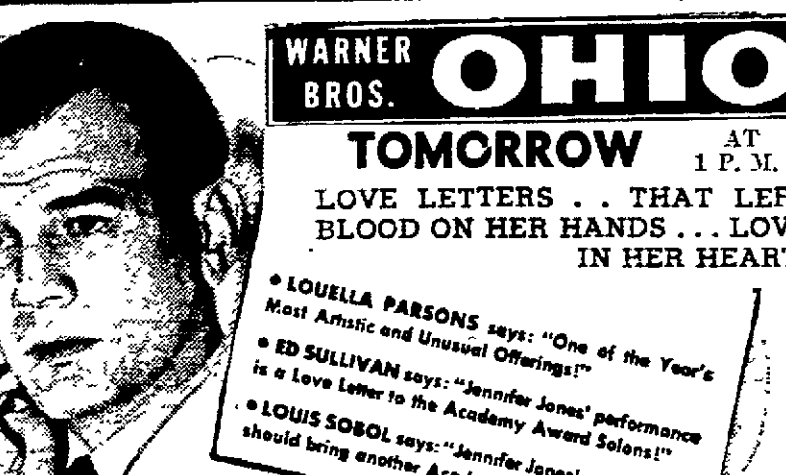

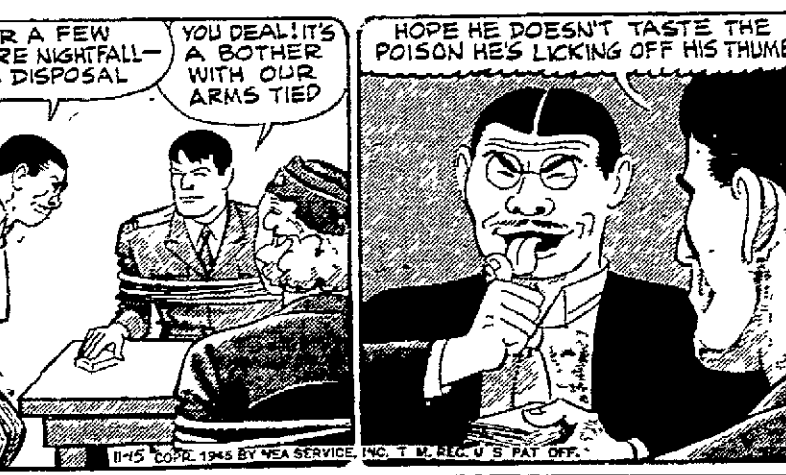

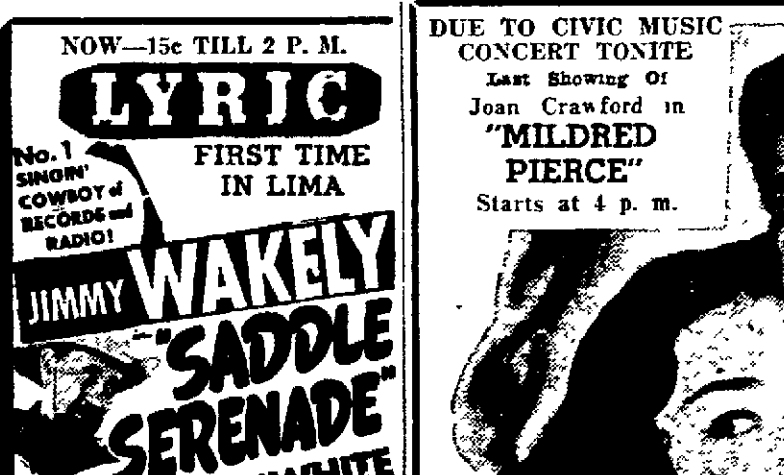

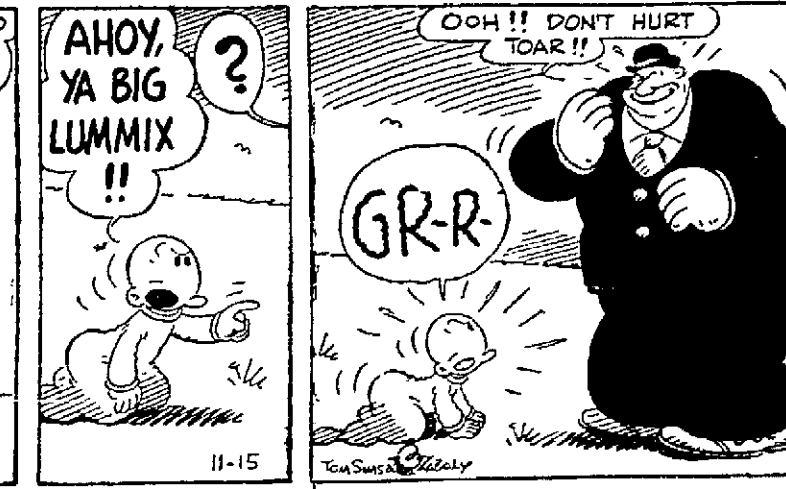

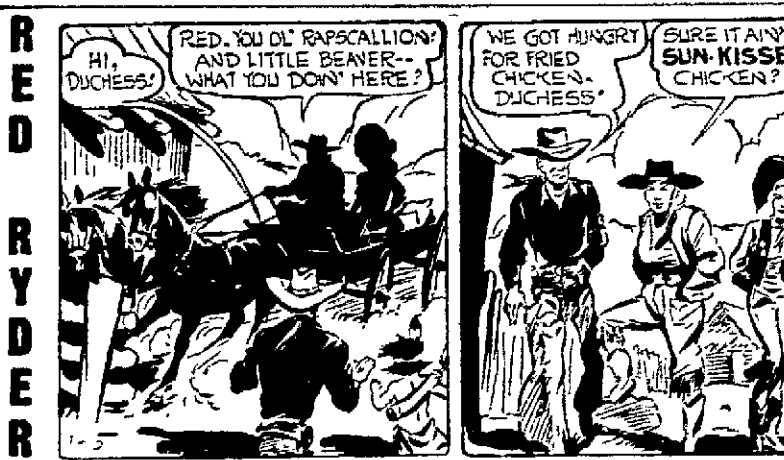

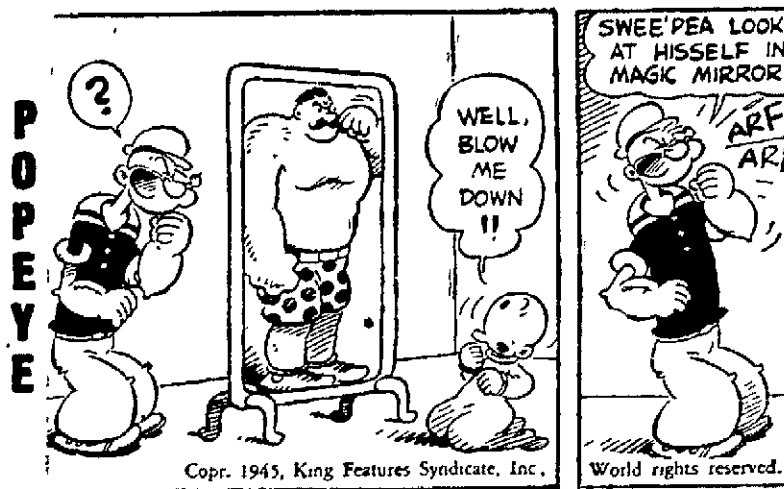

A heart-warming bit of Americana, coming to the Sigma theatre Saturday is "The Southerner." Adapted from George Sessions Perry's prize-winning novel, "Hold Autumn in Your Hand," it is the story of a sturdy young migratory cotton picker whose love of the land gives him the courage to forsake this doubtful security for the bitter battle with nature that is the lot of the man who raises his own crops.

Many movies of today are using song titles for the titles of a film. So it goes at the State theatre where "The Very Thought of You" with Dennis Morgan and Eleanor Parker and currently showing at the State theatre. Poignant in its own right, the picture tells of a boy and a girl who thru some trick of fate, meet and marry. Sharing the billing is that howl hit of the year, "Arsenic and Old Lace" with Cary Grant and Priscilla Lane.

Jimmy Wakely, another western star who reached the rank of top western stars thru his vocal abilities, is currently seen in "Saddle Serenade" at the Lyric theatre. Sharing the bill is "Fighting Lady" the story of the impregnable ship as told by Robert Taylor. Mickey Rooney returns to the Allen theatre Friday in one of his funniest pictures, "Girl Crazy."

Vera Displays New Tactics On "Music Hall" Thursday

Vera Vague tries a new set of man-trapping tactics on Frank Morgan, when she shows up as guest again on the Music Hall program featuring Lina Romay and Carmen Cavallaro at 9 p. m. Thursday over NBC.

Miss Vague will co-star with fabulous Frank in another of his adventures taken from the diversified life of Frank Morgan. Of course, Miss Vague also has her attentions divided between her host and Carmen Cavallaro.

Laugh and lyrics, merriment and melody are the elements when Bud Abbott and Lou Costello cut loose for another session of music and comedy at 10 p. m. Thursday over NBC.

Zachary Scott, newest screen sensation, stars in a spine-tingler with musical overtones, "Murder Of My Mind" the "Suspense" offering at 8 p. m. Thursday over CBS.

Richard Rogue, as played by Dick Powell, matches wits with an international jewel thief on "The Rogues' Gallery" broadcast at 8:30 p. m. over MBS. Titled "The House of Pear," the program is an action-packed mystery melodrama with Rogue, the hard-boiled "private eye," assisted by the Great Western Insurance Co., to investigate the theft of the Sornabland Diamond—one of the largest and most costly diamonds in the world.

"You and the News," a dramatized account of the leading news stories of the week, will make its debut over the coast-to-coast facilities of MBS at 10 p. m. Thursday.

The new program, produced in cooperation with the editors of a news magazine, is based on its editorial theme, "A well informed public is America's greatest security." The leading stories of the week will be presented in a manner designed to appeal to listeners, and further the understanding of the vital issues of the day.

Two flag officers, Lt. Gen. Joseph L. Collins and Vice Adm. Charles M. Cooke, Jr., express opposing viewpoints, when "America's Town Meeting" debates the question, "Should We Have a Single Department for Our Armed Forces?" in the broadcast at 8:30 p. m. Thursday over ABC.
