After I talked at the banquet Dr. Pippin took me in charge he is really the big guy out that way. He is air-plane nutty he is flying all the time he has got more planes than you got fingers

He was out to Wyoming a snort time back hunting antelope. Talk about "in-the-right-business" we'll have to elect him president of the club.

A short time ago Doo bought a $2,000 bull for his farm then the other night I go into his place and sit down on a chair and the chair caved in and me on the floor, Here he buys a $2,000 bull and I sli on a $2.00 chair.

We had a great time Paul Prestegard he was there he sells farm machinery he was showing me how to play some kind of a card game there he must know it I came back with more than I started. Dr. Sam Elmer the baseball man was there Doc is the guy that sent that tough letter into me about the Sauk City game. But we tamed him down some the other night at the meeting. We softened him up those gigars he smokes he must have got those the last election. Vic Hestitune he is the big butter and egg guy out that way he said I should mail him one of those "inthe-right-business" cards as he the-right-business" cards as he cleaned up the last four years. One more year is all he needs he says. Martin Hanson he is the undertaker he was the live one the other night he will be eating turkey and geese for six months is he ever a lucky devil. Rudy Everson he is in the lumber ousiness all he has got to do is sell about six loads of lumber now and he can retire. The theater man was there Carrol Harris he said I would give you a pass but we are closed up for the evening. There's a loose one. Hubert Clautius he sells mens clothes and you know what that business is these on Monona foot of Broom street days. All you got to do is sell a couple of suits and you got the rent paid. Then Clarence Johnson some shucked corn and you'll be he sells womens clothes. He said he is on easy street. He said the stuff he used to try and give There are generally 30 at the

The banquet was held at Louie's Grill in Richland Center the best all-around the State runs that place that is Louie Saloutos. He does more for the high school boys than any other man and the service boys when they come back they really are treated right by him and-how.

He has got quite a family too he has got two nice boys there. The daughter Alice was waiting on table and his wife was setting the whole dinner up. They had a dinner too if you ask me.

Charlie Brace he drove me out he is one of the big shots in the Holstein cattle association. I thought I was a big rancher when I came back he was talking cows, steers, and bulls until I pretty near got out of the car and went over a couple of fences and started putting my arm his brother own three or four beautiful farms out around Spring Green. It would take you all day in an automobile to cover their setup. I finally got Charlie talking football otherwise I would have been a cattle buyer today.
