

Variety Is Keynote Of Film Fares In Lima Sunday

Quilna Heads List Of Shows With "Dollies"

Highlighting the film billings for Sunday will be that little seven-letter word—variety. From deep, enthralling drama to light, bewitching comedy, the pictures offer fans the best of the productions to reach Lima from Hollywood.

The Quilna theatre is currently featuring a dilly in the form of the "Dolly Sisters" starring Betty Grable, John Payne and June Haver. Telling about the two sisters, of their adventures, romances and many experiences, the film will provide top entertainment for all fun seekers Sunday. In technicolor, the film is truly outstanding in both production and acting.

"Confidential Agent" now at the Ohio theatre, is another in the outstanding line of films on the slate for this Sabbath. This picture relates the story of an emissary of the underground during the Spanish Revolution which preceded the recent world conflict. With Charles Boyer and Lauren Bacall, what else could you expect except a hit picture.

A little wooden boy named "Pinocchio" is simply fascinating folks at the State theatre, and it should be, too. For the second time since Walt Disney's production was released, this film has reached the Lima screen and has been entertaining older folks as well as the small fry. You'll remember the story from your younger days—it's about a little puppet, which, thru the kindness and thoughtfulness of the man who carved him from the piece of wood, is made into a real boy.

Opening Sunday at the State theatre is that film which ever since its opening has been enthralling the nation—"Rhapsody in Blue"—the story of George Gershwin's life. Robert Alda, new screen find, plays the role of Gershwin magnificently and all the people with whom he was associated before his death, and who weren't too camera shy, appear in the film with Alda. The music is simply out of this world.

Lloyd Nolan has the starring role in the film currently showing at the Lyric theatre, "The Man Who Wouldn't Die." Sounds gruesome, and it is that. Everyone knows what a zombie is, but when a man can live thru every man killing machine known, then, that's something to see. The billing is "The McGoy" and "Texas Rangers" which tells of the border gun laws.

Duncan Renaldo comes to the Allen theatre Sunday in "The Cisco Kid Returns" with plenty of shooting and gun play. All you western fans are in for a treat when you see this John Wayne featured in "Texas Terrors" another western which is full of the brim with all that you might wish in such a film.

DIES IN HIGHWAY CRASH

TOLEDO, Nov. 24—(INS)—Icy highways claimed the life today of Mrs. Anna Ennis, 74, of nearby Mononectown, who was fatally injured in an automobile collision. Authorities reported that the car driven by Mrs. Ennis' husband, Ray, struck another that skidded into its path at an intersection.

Foreign Policies Are Subject Of Panel Discussion Sunday

A question on propaganda and foreign policy will be the highlight of "Opinion Requested" to be heard at 7 p. m. Sunday over MBS. Robert Sherrod, foreign correspondent and author of "Tarawa" and "On To Westward," Charlotte Adams, Associated Press editor and Judge Hubert T. Delaney of the Domestic Relations Court of the city of New York, will appear as guests.

A holiday of cheer becomes one of jeers for "The Great Gilder-sleeve" when he takes LeRoy to a Thanksgiving Day football game, in the comedy broadcast at 6:30 p. m. Sunday over NBC. A dispute with LeRoy over grid rules leads to comic complications.

Baby Snooks' habit of snooping brings about disastrous results when Daddy attempts to sell an invention to the town banker during "The Baby Snooks Show" aired at 6:30 p. m. Sunday over CBS.

Snooks' Daddy has invented a meat-piller, a device to turn fresh meat into concentrated pill form. Enlisting Baby Snooks' aid for the demonstration, he gives her money to buy meat for the test. She loses the money, but takes matters into her own hands when she decides to try out the machine for the banker's young son.

Fred Allen's distinguished visitor at 8:30 p. m. Sunday over NBC will be the Brooklyn Dodger's manager, Leo Durocher, who has just returned from a USO tour of the South Pacific and Japan. The Allen half-hour features Portland Hoffa, Minerva Pious, the singing De Marco sisters and Al Goodman's orchestra.

Charlie McCarthy will try to dodge the net Vera Vague will have out for him when the man huntress of the air-waves visits him and Edgar Bergen on the broadcast.

Charlie figures there is safety in numbers and will team up with Bergen in contriving to escape the tenacious charms of Miss Vague. However, both Bergen and his wooden spirit will discover the young lady to come from the never-say-die and therein the fun begins.
