

"GI Honeymoon" Heads Bill At Lyric Opening Monday

Perhaps never before in history have two people been interrupted more than Gale Storm and Peter Cookson are in "GI Honeymoon" opening at the Lyric theatre.

It all starts with their marriage upon the heels of which comes the order for Cookson to report immediately for duty. Feeling it is her duty to go with her husband wherever he goes, Gale follows along and some of the funniest shenanigans ever filmed will be seen in this picture.

On the screen of the Ohio theatre is "Confidential Agent" with Lauren Bacall and Charles Boyer. It's the scorching of the year—even more so than "To Have and Have Not" and that's going some to say that. Coming to the theatre Thursday for one day only will be Karston's "Atomic Scandals" with girls, girls and, oh yes, a few girls. There are five great acts which will intrigue you and the Atom Bomb mystery maidens . . . this you'll really want to see.

A couple of beautiful dollies are currently on display at the Quilna theatre—Betty Grable and June Haver in "The Dolly Sisters." The picture tells of these two sisters who bank at Monte Carlo, entertained royalty named on their names in every newspaper, monthly, weekly, "Who's Who" from Broadway to the Riviera and back again.

Little Pinocchio is still holding his own at the Sigma theatre where the film of the same name is currently showing. The puppet boy who was brought to life by the blue fairy of the wishing star has been leading youngsters a merry time on his many adventures thru make-believe land. If you haven't seen it already, then now's the time to do so.

Gershwin's "Rhapsody In Blue" when played for the first time by Paul Whiteman's orchestra in Aeolian Hall, turned the music world upside down and the critics raved on and on. This reviewer can say or add no more to what they said only to tell all those who haven't seen the film "Rhapsody In Blue" currently showing at the State theatre, by all means to see it.

John Wayne plays the lead in "Texas Terrors" currently playing at the Allen theatre. Duncan Renaldo has star billing in the co-feature, "The Cisco Kid Returns."

The wild elephant has been almost exterminated from India and now can be found only in higher ridges and plateaus.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE with MAJOR HOOPLE

NO, TWIGGS, THE SONG ISN'T POLISHED UP BUT I'VE MADE A GOOD START ON THE MELODY—AND THE WORDS WILL CRUSADE AGAINST INFLATION! LISTEN!

"MONSTER INFLATION, CURSE OF THE NATION, A STOUT PROCLAMATION MIGHT SPELL SALVATION!"

EGAD! ORIGINAL ISN'T IT?

HA—HA—EE—HEE—AHP—ACH—PLP—HEE—EE—P!—SAY, ARE YOU WAITIN' ON THIS FUNNY PAPER?

OH, NO, GO RIGHT AHEAD! ANYBODY TRYIN' TO LAUGH AT FUNNIES WHILE EATIN' AROUND A WORM HOLE IN A APPLE IS FUNNY ENOUGH FER ME!

THE TUNE HAUNTS ME, BUT I'M AFRAID SOME PLAGIARIST WROTE A MELODY JUST LIKE IT SOME YEARS AGO AND CALLED IT THE "GLOW WORM."

HOW ABOUT STAGNATION?

THAT'S A GOOD WORD, GLADSTONE!

Tale Of The Racetrack Heard On "Radio Theatre" Monday

"Salty O'Rourke," a fast-moving tale of the racetrack, stars Alan Ladd and Marjorie Reynolds on the Radio Theatre at 9 p. m. Monday over CBS. As Salty O'Rourke, Alan Ladd is a handsome, hard racetrack gambler who is in debt $20,000 to a vicious bookmaker. He's given 30 days to round up the money with his sole asset being a prize racetrack horse named Whipper, which is speedy, but unmanageable.

Vox Pop will do its bit for one of the great charities of the South—the Shriner's hospital for Crippled Children in Greenville, S. C.

Parks Johnson and Warren Hull will travel with Vox Pop to Charlotte, N. C., where they will chat with residents of that city and surrounding country about the annual football classic of the Carolinas which aids the Shrine hospital. The broadcast will be heard at 8 p. m. Monday over CBS.

Joan Davis inherits an estate in the nick of time to give the wolf at the door the brush-off, on "The Joan Davis Show," heard at 8:30 p. m. Monday over CBS.

Banker Weatherly puts the bee on the "Queen of Comedy" when the quarterly payment on her loan comes due and she has no money to pay up. Nothing short of a miracle can save the non-profit-making tea-room for Joanne.

Cigaretts go to Navy convalescents and listeners get a careful of comedy and neat vocalizing on the "Thanks to the Yank" quiz show starting Quizmaster Bob Hawk at 7:30 p. m. Monday over CBS.

Basil Rathbone and Nigel Bruce will be co-starred in "The Case of the Accidental Murderess," the story of an adventure at Stratford-on-Avon in which Sherlock Holmes escapes a stray bullet which he doubts was an accidental shot. The program can be heard at 8:30 p. m. over MBS.
