

"Swiss Family Robinson" Opens Wednesday At Sigma

Remember the picture which appeared several years ago and received so much acclaim because of its likeness to the book? If not, then you'll probably recall the name...

It's on its way to Lima again and will open Wednesday at the Sigma theatre. The story of a family which sells all its possessions to buy a ship and move away from the homeland is told in tie film.

Drawing near is the end of the engagement of "Confidential Agent" with Charles Boyer and Lauren Bacall. The picture will finish its stay at the theatre Wednesday while Thursday will bring the Karston "Atomic Scandals."

Likewise, "The Cisco Kid Returns" will soon reach the end of their stay at the Quilna theatre and Friday will bring the current Danny Kaye starring, "Wonder Man."

Musical skill gallops all over State theatre in "Rhapsody in Blue," the Robert Alda-John Leslie-Alexis Smith starring film.

Your last chance to see "GI Honeymoon" has arrived for the film moves out after its final show Tuesday at the Lyric theatre.

Young Puts On Big Front And Sign Business Goes Up

Alan (Sign King) Young, striving to boost his small sign-shop business into the upper brackets, submits a bid on a $5,000 job during the Alan Young Show heard at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday over ABC.

Figuring that a big front will help over the deal, the pallid painter sets up shop in the Updike mansion. But when rival Hubert Updike and girl friend, Betty Dittenfeffer, pitch in to help, the strange goings on turn a dubious deal into an economic disaster.

Robert Walker and Keenan Wynn of the films play the leading roles, when Mark Hellinger's story, "The Perfect Plan," is presented on "This Is My Best" at 9:30 p. m. Tuesday over CBS.

A bullet in the body of a pet dog enables Mike (The Falcon) Waring to learn the identity of an ingenious killer in "Murder Is a Family Affair" on the "Adventures of the Falcon" to be heard at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday over MBS.

Before the end of this little domestic drama, two people are murdered, one is electrocuted and a fourth is a likely candidate to be next in the Sing Sing hot seat.

Peering from behind Yost Host Paul McGrath's creaking door, radio ace Karl Swenson snaps his shutter on some gruesome scenes when he plays a corpse-crazy photographer in "Death Can Be Beautiful," a photoflash fantasy to be presented as the "Inner Sanctum" mystery at 9 p. m. Tuesday over CBS.

Even as a kid, this camera fiend had a warm place in his heart for warm corpses. When he grows up, his "hobby" takes a professional turn for the worse, with ghastly consequences. Judy Foster goes to a psychiatrist as a lark, and gives him a tale of mistreatment by her "husband" in "A Date With Judy" heard at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday over NBC.

The only thing that keeps this from being an innocent prank is she tells the story in her mother's name—and the psychiatrist happens to be a member of the board passing judgment on Mr. Foster's appointment to the Chamber of Commerce.

The half-track 88-mm mortar carrier M21 actually is a self-propelled gun-mount. The "Badger," as it is called by the men in the field, carries a 50-calibre machine gun, besides the mortar. It speeds its crew of six at the rate of 45 miles per hour and is ideal for hit-and-run fighting.
