

"Duffy's Tavern" Moves In On Bill At The Ohio Friday

"Hello, Duffy's Tavern, where the elite meet to eat, Archie the manager speakin', Duffy ain't here, oh hello, Duffy." Yes, that's the way "Duffy's Tavern" over the radio begins and you can just about expect the movie of the same name opening Friday at the Ohio theatre to start the same way.

A galaxy of stars are to be seen in this laugh-riot of a film which brings Ed Gardner as the word-mangling manager of Duffy's to the screen for the first time. All those who help make each session of the "Tavern" heard every week over the air, a success, are to be seen in the film, too. The shenanigans of the Irish "micks" are to be found here also. If you're looking for a good time, then here's your chance to make an evening of it. For a one day appearance only, the Atomic Scandals are on stage at the Ohio today.

By request of the many Lima theatregoers, "The Dolly Sisters" has been held over at the Quilna theatre. The film which tells about the sisters who were famous around the world, who broke the bank at Monte Carlo, charmed royalty into giving them anything they desired, and literally drove the newspapers crazy with their many escapades out of the country and in the field of romance, is going to stay at the theatre until Saturday.

Pat O'Brien finds the luck of the Irish running out on him in his latest screen role in "Man Alive" the picture currently showing at the Sigma theatre. Sharing the bill is the re-release of "Swiss Family Robinson" the story of a family used to all the comforts of home, set down upon an uninhabited island and left to shift for themselves.

Alan Ladd returns to the screen of the State theatre to bring Lima folks the role he made famous when he was beginning to come up thru the ranks of stars. "This Gun For Hire" with that lovely lady who created the peka-beo bang, Veronica Lake. Sharing the bill is "We Accuse Our Parents" a film as timely as the latest news.

For the first time in Lima, the Lyric theatre brings "The Big Bonanza" with Richard Arlen and

Bob Burns Goes Shopping On Comedy Show Thursday

Bob Burns starts his Christmas shopping early, but discovers that even June wouldn't have been early enough this year, in the comedy broadcast over NBC at 7:30 p. m. Thursday.

Bob and Shirley Ross serve as shopping guides for Leo Gorcey in a tour thru the department store maze. Miss Ross' solo probably in answer to the question, "When the best time to do your Christmas shopping?" is "It Seems to Be Spring."

Romance with a touch of menace is the order of the evening when Alan Ladd visits Dinah Shore on "Dinah Shore's Open House" broadcast over NBC at 8:30 p. m. Thursday.

The tougher they are the harder they fall, and Alan is no exception. He's busy in Dinah's hands. Then he goes about bringing out the Sir Walter Raleigh in him with songs and sweet talk is something to sing about and smile.

Jack Benny, itinerant violinist, wanders into the George Burns and Gracie Allen broadcast as guest-star over NBC at 8 p. m. Thursday. George is in the process of getting a delayed college education so that he can make use of the $5,000 bequest left him by his uncle for that purpose. The trouble is, he's lonesome. He's the only freshman on the campus who looks like an alumnus left over from the reunion of the class of '23.

An ironic dream and its strange aftermath make up the story of "A Week Ago Wednesday," Nancy Kelly's starring vehicle when the screen actress appears on "Sus-

Captain Faces Court Martial

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29—(AP)—A public court martial will try Capt. Charles B. McVay 3d beginning Monday on undisclosed charges concerning the loss of his ship, the heavy cruiser Indianapolis, and 830 men on July 30.

The court will convene at the Navy yard here. Details of the charges will be withheld until they are read to McVay, a Navy department announcement late yesterday said.

The Indianapolis sailed from San Francisco July 16 with a cargo of atomic bomb material for Guam. She made delivery and was returning to the United States when she went down. A Navy communication attributed the loss to "enemy action." A later recapitulation of naval losses disclosed a submarine sank the ship off Leyte in the Philippines.

Casualties among the 1,196 on board were 100 per cent—875 missing, five known dead, 316 wounded.

McVay, 47, lives in Washington.
