

Shep Fields Brings New Music To Lima Monday

Orchestra Is Rated One Of U. S. Best

A treat for folks in and around Lima is the fact that Shep Fields, who recently returned from a USO camp show thruout the European theatre of operations, will be on stage at the Ohio theatre Monday, with his orchestra.

Fields, who has played the Waldorf Astoria in New York City across country to the west coast will bring the new orchestra with the "new music" you have heard so much about for Limaites' opinions. He has changed from his "rippling rhythms" to something that's really snappy and has brought cheers from everyone ever since he made the big change.

At the Quilna theatre Sunday is the picture "The Cheaters." Herein lies one of the most unforgettable stories ever filmed and surely is one you'll not soon forget after seeing. The picture is about a family rather low on funds and in order to keep up with the high standards of living to which they are accustomed, they scheme to heat a girl out of her rightful inheritance. Joseph Schildkraut is superb in the role of the man who came to Christmas dinner and in turn got the whole affair straightened out.

A delightful comedy romance is the bill of fare at the Sigma theatre where "Getting Gertie's Garter" with Dennis O'Keefe and Marie "The Body" McDonald is currently playing. The picture has several mixed up affairs but everything, as usual turns out to a hilariously happy ending.

Robert Walker, Hedy Lamarr and June Allyson have the leads in "Her Highness And The Bell Boy." Another hit which struck the fancy of nearly everyone who saw it the first time and had to go see it again. That's what you'll be doing after you once see the picture—going back to see it again. It is now showing at the State theatre. Sharing the billing is "Falcon In San Francisco" with Tom Conway.

On tap at the Lyric theatre are "Marshall Of Gunsmoke" a six-gun western that will keep you on your toes every minute of the running time wondering who the villain is. Sharing the bill is "Jitterbugs."

The Allen theatre has the Dead End Kids gracing its screen and the things that happen to them in "Block Busters" the picture now showing there, are terrific. The co-feature of this film is "Land Of The Outlaws."

AT OHIO MONDAY—Shep Fields, above, and his orchestra with its "new music" will be at the Ohio theatre Monday for an all-day personal appearance program.

"ALBINO"—Blazing with the excitement of life, the depth of love, and the urge to adventure that is the West, "Thunderhead—Son of Flicka" comes to the screen of the Lyric theatre on Monday with Roddy McDowall heading a brilliant cast including Preston Foster and Rita Johnson. The picture, based on Mary O'Hara's best-loved best-seller, was filmed in brilliant Technicolor.

Advertising Has No Appeal For Parkyakarkus Sunday

Parkyakarkus decides to investigate the old adage that it pays to advertise on the "Meet Me At Parky's" program at 10:30 p. m. Sunday over NBC.

There's no doubt that word-of-mouth advertising is best of all, but Parky can't see how his customers are going to do any of that for him when he keeps their mouths so full. There's only one way to get more business, he figures, and that's to do everything himself.

Fred Allen will merge from his volumes of Encyclopedia Britannica to meet the Quiz Kids when they show up as his program guests at 8:30 p. m. Sunday over NBC. When asked how he felt matching I. Q.'s with the Quiz Kids, Fred explained, "It's like being on Information Please with your glasses off. Everything looks smaller."

Charlie McCarthy has his old heckling friend, "Chuck" Laughton to bout with on the program heard at 8 p. m. Sunday over NBC. Laughton generally starts off with rubbing the splinter the wrong way. Such things as "mahogany" and implications that Berkeley's boy is somewhat mentally retarded never make for a harmonious meeting.

Laurette Taylor, beloved American actress; Lt. David Irwin, U. S. Army expert on roose dogs in the Arctic; and several Army Air Force prisoners of war will be among Milo Boulton's guests on "We, The People" at 10:30 p. m. Sunday over CBS.

Even when he is wracked with

OPENS AT STATE—Edward G. Robinson runs thru their school lessons with Margaret O'Brien and Jackie Jenkins in this scene from "Our Vines Have Tender Grapes" opening Thursday at the State theatre.
