"Thunderhead" Due At Lyric With Roddy M'Dowall Monday

A story about a boy and a horse always has had universal appeal, especially when written by a fine novelist, with a great sympathy and understanding of boys and horses. Such a story, filmed in glorious technicolor with many world famous scenic spots as its background, is "Thunderhead-Son of Flicka" opening at the Lyric theatre Monday.

Based on Mary O'Hara's best-loved best-seller, the picture is the story of the west today by today's greatest story-teller of the west. The film has been acclaimed as even more thrilling, heart-stirring and unforgettable than the neverto-be-forgotten "My Friend Flicka." At the Ohio theatre for one-day only is Shep Fields and his orchestra. Fields will be at the theatre Monday with his new music. The picture, "Too Young To Know," will pick up where it left off Sunday on Tuesday. The film tells of a young couple who marry in the throes of love and wind up in the throes of a divorce court. It is an almost true to life story of many coupes who married and yet were not ready to settle down.

A western picture that will top any other to date is the one currently showing at the Quilna the-atre—"The Bells of Rosarita" with Roy Rogers and Dale Evans. A lot of action has been incorporated into this show and is one that will certainly be a treat to western fans. Sharing the billing is the picture, "The Cheaters," a film which, in plot, has not been surpassed in many a month. "Getting Gertie's Garter" seems to be the chief interest at the Sigma theatre for many folks. Dennis O'Keefe and Marie Mc-Donald have the starring roles in this hilariously happy film. Intermixed with comedy and romance, the picture has been, literally speaking, keeping folks rolling in the aisles with laughter. The State theatre has Highness and the Bell Boy" for its attraction with Hedy Lamarr, Robert Walker and June Allyson as the starring players. The pic- continually thruout the film to ture tells a heart-glowing story of a bellboy who accidentally meets and falls in love with a princess and thru a series of highly humorous circumstances imagines she is in love with him, too. Miss Allyson, as Walker's bed-ridden girl cuss military aviation in his first friend, watches in silent agony as public speech since before the war her own romance is shattered by at an Aero club of Washington the royal "intruder."
