Spook Show To Have Stage At Ohio Theatre Thursday

For all you avid spook show fans, there's a treat in store for you at the Ohio theatre Thursday. At 10:30 p. m. Thursday, Leeston, the magician who is noted for his ability to pull ghosts and spirits out of every possible place around him, will be on stage at the Ohio theatre.

The last performance of "Too Young to Know" with Robert Hutton and Joan Leslie will be at 8 p. m. and the spook show will go on at 10:30 p. m. followed by the film,

"The Evil Eye," There will be only one show with Leeston and in defiance of all stage performances, this one will be staged on time.

Opening at the State theatre Thursday will be "Our Vines Have Tender Grapes" with Margaret O'Brien, Edward G. Robinson, James Craig, Frances Gifford and Jackie Jenkins. The picture has a wonderful, human plot and tells about a group of Wisconsin farm folks and of their many experiences from the time Bjorn Bjornson's barn burned down to the every day experiences. Many parts of the picture have amusing backgrounds which in turn lend themselves into the color of the picture. Sharing the billing at the theatre is "Appointment In Tokyo." Tuesday brought the picture "Pin Up Girl" with Betty Grable and "Buffalo Bill" with Joel Mc-Crea to an audience at the Quilna theatre which gave the two pictures a big ovation.

Boris Karloff plays one of the most human roles in all his screen career in "Isle of the Dead" now showing at the Sigma theatre. Telling of a Greek General who returns after the war of 1912 in the Balkans, to the grave of his wife, where he might mourn her death, a strange chain of circumstances arise causing him to go mad and among other things, kill several

A story which shows the result of the pull of the "big city" on a girl is pictured in "Behind City Lights" now showing at the Lyric theatre. Sharing the bill is "Trail Of Kit Carson."

Judy Canova keeps things very lively at the Allen theatre where she currently can be seen in "Scatterbrain" a rollicking comedy which will keep you laughing until your sides nearly split with joy. The co-feature is "Riders Of The Purple Sage" with George Mont-
