Mystery Theme Outstanding In Saturday Films Here

Lima's pictures for the week-end have one theme in common and that is mystery. Saturday will usher in a group of this type film, Sunday following with pictures having a little comedy.

At the Ohio theatre is a picture with comedy and-mystery interspersed. With Deanna Durbin in the feature role, the picture is packed with excitement, adventure and fun aplenty. David Bruce and Ralph Bellamy have title roles in this film, also, and make the most of them by keeping things plenty active. Miss Durbin as an amateur, sleuth does very well until she finds the murderer, then things begin to look a little darker for her.

The Quilna theatre is currently showing two comeback pictures, The Adventures of Tom, Sawyer' with "Prisoner of Zenda" as a cofeature. Both pictures were so good when first released that requests have been pouring in to the Hollywood studio for them to return. In compliance with these requests, the Quilna theatre brought the films to Lima.

On tap at the Sigma theatre "Follow That Woman" and the "Daltons Ride Again" picture which is a thrill for all western fans. The latter picture is one of the most colorful of all frontier bandit chronicles, the story of the Dalton brothers' last stand in Coffeyville, Kas. It's one of the most shocking chapters in frontier outlawry ever written for the screen. "Follow That Woman" is a picture completely wrapped in suspense and mystery:

Opening Sunday at the State theatre is "The Southerner" the story of the migratory worker whose love of the soil was so great that he faced all obstacles in order to own some. Zachary Scott and Betty Field have the starring roles in the picture. Sharing the bill is "It's in the Bag" with Fred Allen.

"Moonlight and Cactus" is music-laden, fun-filled piece of celluloid which is currently playing at the Lyric theatre starring the Andrews Sisters. The picture tells of the merchant mariner who that his ranch had suddenly in- weeds" will have Autry as the came home from the sea to find herited an abundance of cowgirls. star. He storms and rages because he thinks that a girl can't handle cattle as well as men-but he's surprised. Sharing the billing which will play beginning Saturday midnight at the Lyric theatre. The Allen theatre will begin the week with two nifty westerns starring the king singers of the
