Daltons On Rampage In Film On Sigma Screen

The Daltons are on the rampage again. Yes, they have been revived to bring another chapter of their notorious lives to the screen of the Sigma theatre opening Wednesday.

The rugged picture focuses attention upon the final Dalton foray, the Coffeyville, Kans. raid in 1892, when the fearsome foursome was all but liquidated. These notorious brigands who terrorized Kansas

Emmett. played by Alan Curtis, is tried for his life, following this raid. discloses then that he and his brothers had abandoned banditry and were battling for justice against the Kansas land-grabbers, when tricked into the Coffeyvilla ambush and their doom.

The Ohio theatre has "Lady On Train" with Deanna Durbin, and folks seem to be liking it. The picture, which folks had been expecting, hoping and praying for arrived Friday and ever since has been playing to capacity audi-

Two new features opened Tues day at the Quilna theatre and they were "Wintertime" and "Flying Tigers." Both pictures, when first released, did themselves up "brown"—as the saving goes—and have come back to Lima for more laurels.

"The Southerner" with Zachary Scott and Betty Field is the story. the little heard of, is what some would consider, the most beautiful story ever written about the migatory workers. "Grapes of Wrath" and "Tobacco Road" gave you a taste of what this picture is like, but not in full. It's different, tho along the same line. Sharing the bill at the State theatre is "It's in the Bag" with Fred Allen. Jack Benny, Don Ameche and Victor Moore. Coming to the Lyric theatre Wednesday will be "Lights of Old Santa Fe" with the king of the singing cowboys Roy Rogers in the title role. Sharing the billing will be "Tiger Woman."

John Wayne has the top billing "A Man Betrayed" opening at the Allen theatre Wednesday. The co-feature will be "Belle Star"
