I might be dumb but nothing dumb about this.

Roundy:

I have known you since you were a young fellow, and I have seen you advance in your chosen line of work, until you have become quite successful and well liked by thousands of people just like me. I glory in your success and hope it continues.

There is one thing however which I believe should be brought to your attention, and I am going to do so in this letter, and hope to so in this letter, and hope to your attention, and I am going to do so in this letter, and hope to so in this letter.

Confidentially, Roundy, I have often harbored the philometic lure, so that some day, I too, may become a column writer of note and have a by line all my own, in which I can express my inner most thoughts and ideas, without fear or favor from my Editor.

Please Roundy, let me know the secret you possess in getting by with this column, are you related to Mort Luby or G. L. Wright? Or possibly you are still working grafts, cleaning up a bowling wage of O rdoes the everlasting obstreperousness of typewriters, in making up your glgantic column full you into a dreamy coma, and do you while in this happy state of oblighting, reading the property of the played Friday night. to your attention, and I am going to do so in this letter, and hope that you will accept it in the spirit in which it is written.

I note that recently you have been advocating that the local high schools should include Edgewood High School on their athletic schedules.

The scholastic requirements at Edgewood are different than they are at our public schools. When young men reach a certain age they are not permitted to indulge in sports. And that is as it should
