

"Riders Of Dawn" Opens At Lyric Theatre Monday

There's romance, mystery, comedy and action in "Riders of the Dawn," the film which opens Monday at the Lyric theatre.

White's traveling medicine show decides to pitch camp for the night on a ranch site. Wakely and his pals, Lee and "Dusty" James, request permission to use the ranch grounds.

Opening at the Ohio theatre Tuesday will be the film, "The Spanish Main" in Technicolor, starring Paul Henreid, Maureen O'Hara and Walter Slezak.

The exploits of a Dutch merchant captain who turns pirate to avenge himself on the Spaniards for the brutal enslavement of his crew forms the groundwork of the exciting plot.

With the exciting impact of "Laura" still fresh in memories of moviegoers, a still greater triumph has been scored in unusual and solid entertainment with "Fallen Angel" opening Tuesday at the Quilna theatre.

The picture has a theme which never before has been so excitingly explored in film; never has any story been told with such sheer shock and suspense from start to finish; and rarely has a motion picture achieved such gem-like perfection of acting, direction and production.

Tuesday will bring that ever-awaited film that folks all over the country have been talking about, "Yolanda And The Thief" with Fred Astaire.

The picture will open at the Sigma theatre.

The State theatre has come forth with the picture "Mildred Pierce" starring Joan Crawford and Zachary Scott.
