'San Antonio,' Starring Flynn, Due New Year's Eve At Ohio

The New Year will be welcomed in royally at the Ohio theatre when Errol Flynn's latest film, "San Antonio," opens there Monday. The picture, in technicolor, is packed with action and will open at the theatre at 5 p. m. and play thru the midnight show.

"Spanish Main" with Paul Henreid, Maureen O'Hara and Walter Slezak, currently featured at the theatre will play up to 5 p. m. when

"San Antonio" will replace it. "Spanish Main" shows the adventure and romance among the freebooters of the 17th century. Henreid is cast as a peaceful Dutch navigator who turns pirate to avenge himself on the Spaniards for having enslaved his crew, and Miss O'Hara portrays a proud Spanish lady who is the intended bride of Slezak, the brutal governor of Spain's dominions in the New World.

At the Quilna theatre is the very recent film hit which received plaudit after plaudit all the way across the United States, "Fallen Angel," with Alice Faye, Dana Andrews and Linda Darnell. With Alice Faye in her first really dramatic role since her departure from the screen several years ago in which she took up the greatest role of her life-that of being a wife and mother—the picis outstanding in its own right. It has suspense, romance and mystery. The suspense of the film mounts as the characters' objectives become more obvious.

"Yolanda and the Thief" at the Sigma theatre is a lovely specimen of someone's imagination. Done in bright technicolor, the picture has a fictitious background with everything revolving about the fabulous millions of a young girl who leaves the convent to look after it. A change of heart of a so-called guardian angel who wasn't a guardian angel but who tried to swindle her out of the money, is the highlight of the pic-Starred are Fred Astaire and his new dancing partner, Lucille Bremer. Several dances done by the pair are to be seen plus a sequence which, tho involved, has a definite meaning.

Another technicolor feature to be seen is the one at the State theatre under the title of "Pinocchio" and in the form of a cartoon.

Sharing the billing is "The Hidden Eye" with Edward Arnold in guilty party.

If it's action you are craving, the murder charge. Bill Carson." The co-feature is 'Gangs of the Waterfront."

The story of the war in Europe from beginning is pictured on film and can be seen at the Allen theatre under the title of "The True With Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower as narrator, the picture shows the horrors of war said nothing could be gained by which the men had to encounter. Sharing the bill is "Dynamite Canyon."
