

Ohio Brings "TNWY" Tuesday For Three-Day Engagement

A new combination of Hollywood stars will make their first appearance together at the Ohio theatre Tuesday when Franchot Tone, Susanna Foster, Louise Albritton and David Bruce take bows in the musical farce comedy, "That Night With You."

The picture, one of the more delightful to come from the film shops, may be described as a fairy tale for grownups, for while it is not actually fantasy it avoids dealing with any unpleasant problems. Being a timeless story it is unconcerned with wars, reconversion, rationing or any of the other complexities of modern living. It's only aim, pure entertainment, is happily realized. The story is this:

It revolves around a girl who dreams of stardom on the stage while working as waitress in a diner. Suzy Foster brings the girl vividly to life, and under skilled direction, the plot sends her thru a series of hilarious situations.

Tuesday will bring "Penny Serenade" to the Quina theatre with "Shores Of Tripoli" as the co-feature. Currently billed at the theatre is "Sunbonnet Sue" with Gale Storm and Phil Regan. Telling the romantic and luxurious Gay Mineties, the picture is steeped in some of the most beautiful songs to come out of the past. Sharing the billing is "Girl Of The Limerlost."

Two new members, Oscar Renner, of Lima, and Dr. F. A. Young, this city, were added to the board for this year to fill vacancies. The director's board is comprised of Allen-co residents with Arthur Bonifas, Henry Lang, Fred J. Buettner, Harold Fosnaught, L. R. Stemen, Herman Dienstberger, L. L. Foley and the two new members comprising the board.

On the docket at the State theatre is a mystery film which has all the thrills fans could want. The name of the picture is "Dangerous Partners" and has Signe Hasso and James Craig as its stars. Sharing the billing is "Abbott and Costello in Hollywood" and what these two fellows do to a movie set, shouldn't happen to a junk heap.

Coming Saturday midnite to the Lyric theatre is the film "Hi Beautiful" with Noah Berry, Jr. and Martha O'Driscoll. The picture tells of a woman real estate agent and her plight in evicting a soldier from a house which she is supposed to be selling. Sharing the bill will be "Rustlers of the Badlands."

For one day only, "Isle of Missing Men" and "Two Fisted Justice" will play at the Allen theatre. The two films will play Thursday while "Roger Touhy, Gangster" and "Marshal of Mesa City" will replace them Friday.

STATE ACT AUTHOR DIES
TOLEDO, Jan. 8. (AP)—J. Harrington Boyd, author of the Ohio workmen's compensation act, died yesterday. He was 82. HOOVER IS CANDIDATE
COLUMBUS, Jan. 8. (AP)—Herbert Hoover of Columbus, who unsuccessfully sought the Republican nomination for lieutenant governor last year, has announced his candidacy for the party nomination for secretary of state. He will oppose Edward J. Hummel, Republican incumbent.

Forest Families Duck Bullets As Train Blazes

MARLBOROUGH, WILTSHIRE, Eng., Jan. 3. (UP)—Six inhabitants of Cadley in Saverlake Forest, defying orders to evacuate, ducked every few minutes today as shells and bullets exploded in a burning ammunition train nearby.

Two cars in the ammunition train exploded at a British camp yesterday afternoon killing one soldier and injuring four. Ten others were reported missing. No American soldiers were involved.

Flames spread and set off explosions in seven other cars fully loaded with ammunition.

Troops, firemen and other civilians evacuated the area last night to await daylight for resuming a battle against the flames.

But the six villagers, including an 83-year-old man and his 80-year-old wife who had lived in Cadley all their lives, refused to budge.

Their son, F. W. Durrage, telephoned Marlborough early today and reported explosions were occurring every few minutes and bullets and shells "were whizzing thru the air and going off like firecrackers."

Approximately 150,000,000 gallons of ice cream are manufactured annually in the United States during normal times.

New Year's Eve is the official season for noisemakers, but Bud Abbott and Lou Costello extend the season a few days, in their comedy broadcast at 10 p. m. Thursday over NBC.
