

Story of Men Under Fire Told in Ohio Film Thursday

Opening Thursday at the Ohio theatre in all the glory that made the real men famous will be "They Were Expendable" with Robert Montgomery and John Wayne.

The picture tells of the PT boat that transported Gen. MacArthur and his family to the submarine that carried them to the safety of Australia just before the fall of Bataan. Amusingly, yet stirringly told, the picture turns out to be one of the most exciting films of the season.

Coming to the Quilna theatre is the delightful comedy romance, "She Wouldn't Say Yes," with Rosalind Russell and Lee Bowman. The film tells of the girl who wouldn't take no for an answer. A new screen character, thus, has been added to the long lists. It is "Pixie" the little fellow who tells the gal what to do.

Eddie Bracken has the starring role in "Hold That Blonde" now

Theatre Guide

OHIO—"They Were Expendable" with Robert Montgomery and John Wayne.

QUILNA—"Penny Serenade" with Cary Grant and Irene Dunne; also "To The Shores of Tripoli."

STATE—"Hold That Blonde" and "Crimson Canary."

LYRIC—"Mom and Dad."

COMING UP

OHIO—"Stork Club" commences Friday.

QUILNA—"She Wouldn't Say Yes" and "The Adventures of Rusty" open Friday.

SIGMA—"Captain Kidd" and "Sing Your Way Home" start Saturday.

STATE—"Duffy's Tavern" and "Isle of the Dead" begin Sunday.

LYRIC—"The Pioneers" and "Frozen Ghost" commences Saturday.

ALLEN—"Chad Hanna" and "Rolling Westward" commences Friday.

showing at the State theatre with Veronica Lake in the other starring role.

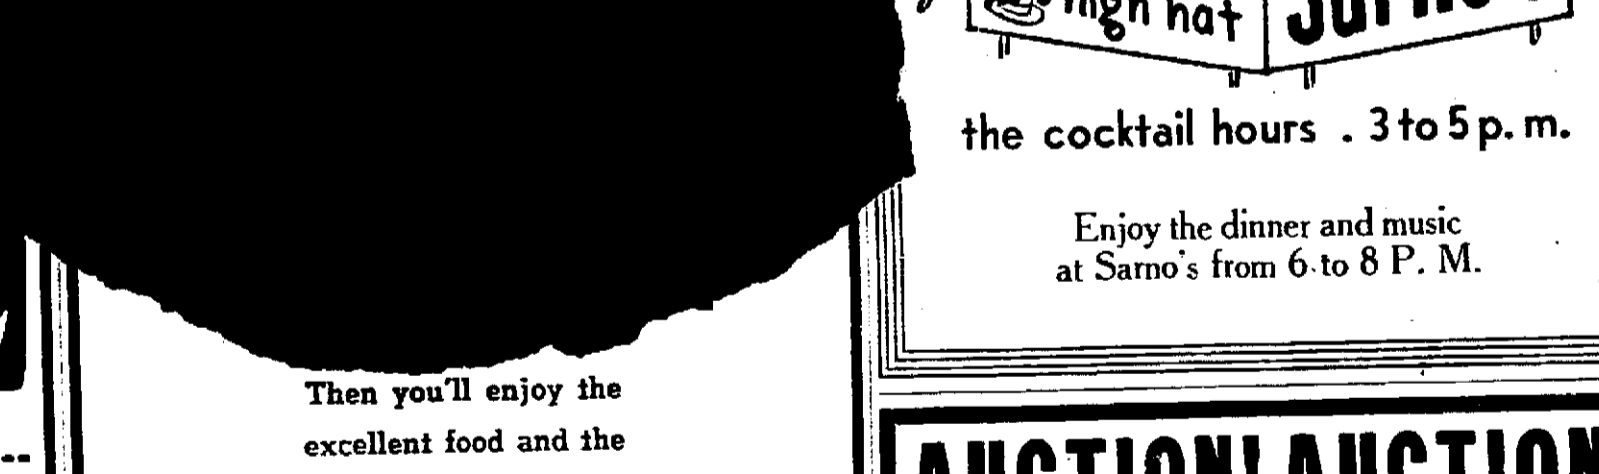

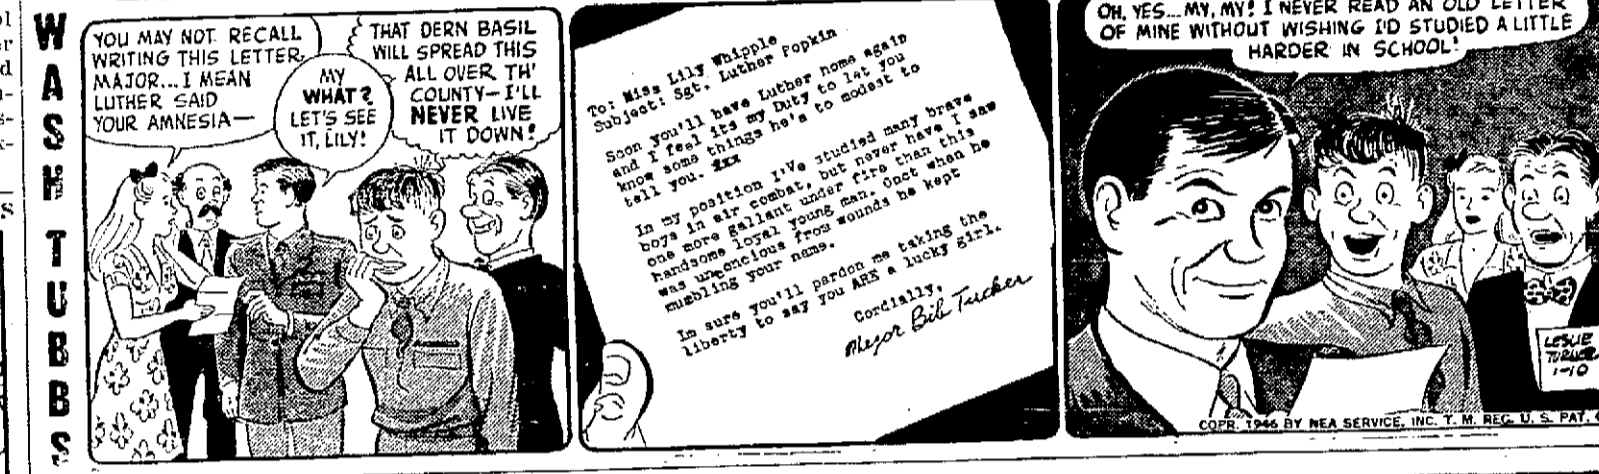

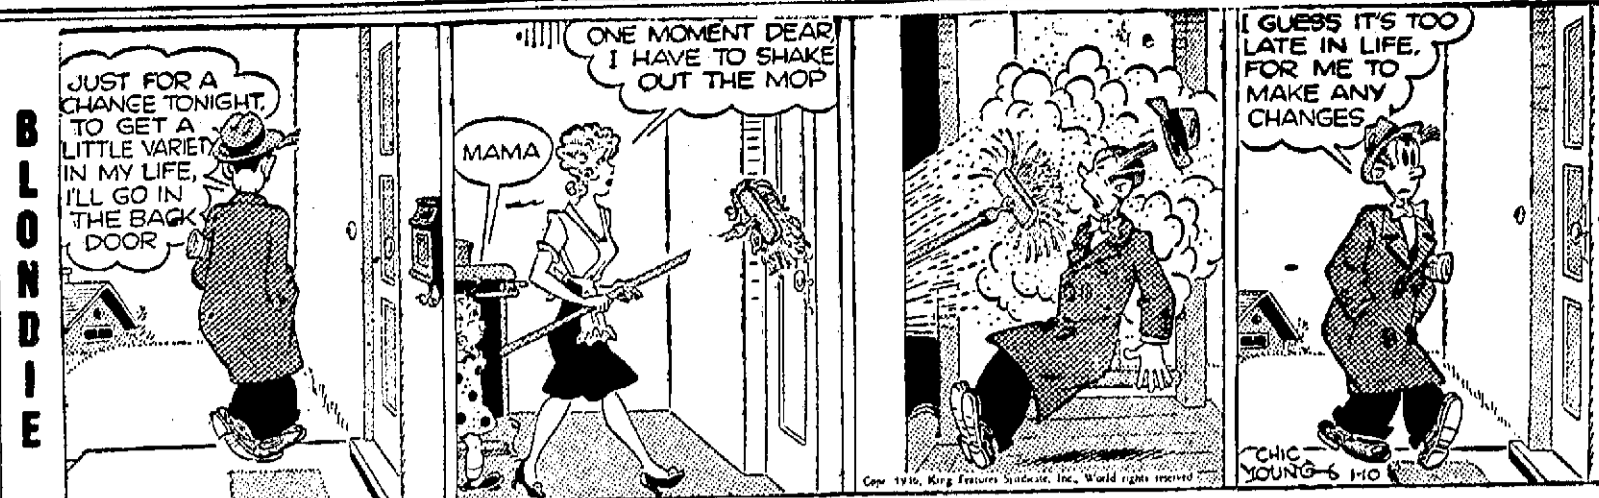

The picture is one of the most hilarious films ever witnessed by this reviewer when it tells of a millionaire's son who has deplorable ideas. Of course, there are other light-fingered members of the crowd but Bracken is the funniest.

With only a few more days remaining of the time in which you can see "Mom and Dad" you'll not want to miss it. Truly, one of the greatest educational films to come out of Hollywood, the picture stresses the things which parents consider taboo subjects for youngsters. The film tells them in one of the most interesting ways in filmdom.

Cary Grant turns out a swell performance in "Mr. Lucky" the picture now showing at the Allen theatre. Coming to the theatre Friday will be "Chad Hanna" with Henry Fonda and Linda Darnell. "Enchanted Forest" continues its run at the Sigma theatre with its stars Brenda Joyce and Edmund Lowe.

Coming to the theatre Saturday will be "Captain Kidd" with Charles Laughton. The picture tells the story of the infamous captain who was supposed to be working for the king, but in reality, was working to better himself and himself alone.

FIRE DAMAGES AUTO
ST. MARYS, Jan. 10—Alcohol which spilled from the heater hose when it broke ignited and did $20 damage to Sterling Huges' automobile here Wednesday. The municipal firemen extinguished the blaze.

Frank Sinatra To Be Guest On Dinah Shore's Show

Smooth singing and sweet talk hold sway when Frank Sinatra visits "Dinah Shore's Open House" at 8:30 p. m. Thursday over NBC.

Dinah and "The Voice" blend in vocal twosomes, comparing their present-day singing style with the kind of music they made together a few years back when they were a couple of struggling unknowns on an early-morning sustaining program in New York. They've come a long, long way since those early days and they don't mind bragging about each other's successes.

Richard Rogue, as played by Dick Powell, crashes hard-head on into one of the most buffing, weird and exciting cases of his career on the "Rogue's Gallery" broadcast at 8:30 p. m. Thursday over MBS.

Phil Terry, featured in the motion picture hit, "The Lost Weekend" plays the star role when "Suspense" offers the hair-raising drama, "This Was a Hero" in the broadcast over CBS at 8 p. m.
