"Song of Bernadette" Opens On Monday at Lyric Theatre

Greater than the book itself, "The Song of Bernadette" comes to the Lyric theatre at popular prices. Telling the heart warming story of a French maiden who discovered a fountain of water that made afflicted persons well, but no one believed her, thus she was punished. Franz Werfel, author of the book, has turned out a masterpiece and Jennifer Jones, who is featured in the starring role, turns out the

the same kind of performance. Robert Montgomery, John Wayne and Donna Reed are the three top stars of "They Were Expendable," the film currently showing at the Ohio theatre. The picture tells of the heroic experience of these two men and of the day they transferred Gen. Mac-At thur and his family from Bataan to a submarine which would transport him to Australia. Rosalind Russell and Lee Bowman keep things pretty active at the Quilna theatre where their current film is now showing. The picture, "She Wouldn't Say Yes," is a delightful comedy - romance between a cartoon-drawing serviceman and a psychiatrist. Everything turns out fine but it takes "Nixie" of the cartoons to work the miracle.

Swords clash upon swords and the battle's on in the film "Captain Kidd," 'the film starring Charles Laughton, Randolph Scott and Barbara Britton, and currently playing at the Sigma theatre. Plenty of action is incorporated in this film which tells of the days when pirates ran almost every treasure ship from the sea. Sharing the bill is "Sing Your Way Home." A host of stars plus Ed "Archie" Gardner is enough for anyone to ask and they're getting it in "Duffy's Tavern" the film cutrently playing at the State the-When Archie and Victor Moore pretend they are masseurs and attempt to give Betty Hutton
