Live Stock

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—(UP)—Live stock market was active. Fed steers and over held steady at ceilings and sows were steady to 25 cents higher, moving up to the ceiling. Midwest receipts showed a sharp reaction but broad shipping outlet attracted more hogs on Thursday and Friday. About two-thirds of Friday's crop went to outside accounts.

Cattle receipts dropped sharply due to the packing house strike, but local and western receipts were carried over from Thursday and Friday. About all killing classes advanced quickly and trade closed very active. Fed steers and yearlings made a net return for the week of 50 cents, and in instances 75 cents. Heifers were 25 to 50 cents higher, with a few heavy ones up to 75 cents. Canners weak; bulls up about 50 cents, and strictly good and choice medium weight vealers were steady. But all others dropped 1.00 to 1.50.

Eastern shippers took the bulk of the crop with good and choice steers and yearlings bring $18.00, and except for a few heavy ones, the medium grade grade killer steers made an all-time average high, quality considered. Bulk of heavy steers were sold at $18.00. Heifers bulked from $14.00 to $17.00, with strictly choice kind bringing $18.00. Most beef cows closed from $12.00 to $12.25, with good ones reaching $13.75 and beef bulls $14.50. Good to medium vealers closed from $10.00 to $12.00, with choice heavies at $13.50.

Receipts in the sheep house showed sharp curtailment because of Fed steers and yearlings arrivals here less than half as large as the previous week and the 13 markets reflecting much greater reduction in buyers absorbed the available supply quickly. Slaughter lambs were 35 to 50 cents higher and other killing classes advanced 25 cents.

Good and choice native and fed woolled wethers 114 lbs. down sold from $14.75 to $15.10 with the late sale at $15.10. Medium to good woolskins brought $13.00 to $14.15. A few medium and good yearlings were sold at $10.00. Choice slaughter ewes realized $5.75 to $7.50.
