

Off-Trail Saga of Pioneers Told in Quilna Film Friday

An off-trail saga with an interesting plot and fascinating characters should be fast-moving enough for any audience.

It is packed with action and is satisfying with romance and comedy as well as abounding in dramatic sequences.

John Wayne portrays John Devlin, a rough, tough, taciturn cowhand and rancher, who eloped from Chicago to Dakota with his young bride, Vera Hruba Ralston.

"The Lost Weekend," the film which bowed into the Ohio theatre Friday is something revolutionary in motion picture history.

Ray Milland, Jane Wyman and Phillip Terry help make up the stupendous cast. For those who thought of Ray Milland as a very handsome man with a flair for drawing room comedy, here is something to knock the pins from under them.

Ann Sothern will come to the Sigma theatre Saturday in her latest film "Up Goes Maisie" and believe it or not, she actually flies around in a helicopter in this picture.

Known to the theatre audiences for several years as "Maisie," Miss Sothern has come down to the hearts of many fans during this time.

The State theatre's new policy of opening with a new picture Saturdays and Wednesdays instead of the old practice of opening with films Thursdays and Sundays, soon will be under way.

With only one more day for "Government Girl" with Olivia de Havilland to play at the theatre.

A monster made by man forms the basis for the shocking and exciting film "Jungle Captive" the film currently showing at the Lyric theatre.

Gene Tierney and Preston Foster have the stellar roles in "Thunderbirds," the stirring and dramatic film now playing at the Allen theatre.

HARLAN IS CONFIRMED WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—(AP)—The senate yesterday confirmed the nomination of Byron A. Harlan as judge of the tax court of the United States to serve an unexpired term that began June 2, 1936.

Two Are Held As Accomplices

TOLEDO, Feb. 1.—(UP)—Bonnie Fields, 21, and Everett Porters, 28, today were bound over to the grand jury on $5,000 bond.

Police said the pair operated from a downtown tavern, with the woman acting as a "come-on" for male patrons.

Two men reported being robbed in that fashion in the past two weeks. Harold Baglien said he was assaulted and robbed of $8, while Carl Bollett said he lost a watch and $75.

Ed "Archie" Gardner puts it on a little too thick for comfort, when Peggy Lee comes to sing on "Duffy's Tavern," at 8:30 p. m. Friday over NBC.

In order to convince Peggy that he's no ordinary hired hand, "Archie" gets "Finnegan" to impersonate boss Duffy. Their hob-nobbing runs into a snag that leaves the language-mangling manager crying the blues about love and the working classes.

The official photographer of the Chinese government, H. C. Liu, will give his impressions of the Hollywood movie world in an interview with the cinema reporter, Erskine Johnson at 4 p. m. Friday over MBS.

Now enjoying an extended visit in the motion picture capital, Liu is studying American production methods under the auspices of the U. S. State department.

"Bad Middle Boy" Red Skelton will be on hand to greet Ginny and her radio troupe when the "Gingy Simms Show" returns to Hollywood for the Friday broadcast at 7:30 p. m. over CBS.

After a month in New York, Ginny gets a brightly embroidered report on the Hollywood-and-Vine situation from guest Red Skelton, who's been gathering vital statistics ever since his recent release from the Army.

In trying to straighten out a tangled romance for his sister Mary, Henry Aldrich misfires as Cupid and causes a four-way feud in "Lovers' Lane" during "The Aldrich Family" comedy broadcast at 8 p. m. Friday over CBS.

The Aldrich son unwittingly calls off a much-desired date for his sister. In trying to make amends, he succeeds in alienating not only the angry beau but also his own girl friend, Kathleen Anderson.
