CHICAGO LIVE STOCK CHICAGO, Feb. 9—4.19—All weights and classes of hogs ruled steady this week with salable receipts equalling last week. However, there is mounting evidence that the peak movement of the current hog grop has passed. Daily trading is a rubber stamp affair with the $14.85 ceiling taking practically all barrows and gilts. Sows bulked at the $14.10 ceiling with good light stags selling up to that price late in the week.

Fed steers and yearlings were steady after regaining an early decline. Trading closed active and receipts expanded at all markets. Approximately 10.000 more head were on the market in Chicago over last week with better than 45.000 head more showing at the twelve large market centers, Heifers remained strong, good beef cows were 50c lower, but common and medium beef cows, along with canners and cutters, were 15-25c higher. Bulked at $14.50-17.50 and most heifers at $13.50-16.25. Common and medium heifers bulked at $11.50-13.00, beef bulls were at $11.50-13.00, beef bulls at $12.75-14.00 and standyuts bulked at $12.75-14.00 and standyuts bulked at $14.55. Thougher over last week with closing values generally 25c above current ways.

Slaughter lambs were steady to 15c higher over last week with closing values generally 25c above current week i low. All other staughter classes were steady on a late active market with buying aggressive from all sources. Good and choice fed wooled western lambs topped at $15.00-155.00. May 2.14 May MiLWAUKEE Feb. 9 — (U.P.) — Hogs: Receipts 9.368. Active and firm all week at ceiling prices for practically all hogs on market; $14.70 on butchers, 1913.95 on sows; piggy sows, no dock-sept.
