

Constance Moore Featured In 'Delightfully Dangerous'

For those who enjoy burlesque, Constance Moore is featured as queen of this profession in "Delightfully Dangerous," the film opening at the Lyric theatre Monday.

Hollywood has brought to the films, a new romantic team which includes Miss Moore as the feminine lead and Ralph Bellamy holding down the masculine role. The picture has been heralded as one of the most unusual musicals ever to be made in Hollywood and carries the story of two sisters, one of them a young singer, the other a cultured business queen who producer that the classics don't have to be treated with kid gloves to win a modern audience.

Bringing to the audiences of Lima some of the most unusual entertainment in a long time is the film, "The Harvey Girls," starring Judy Garland, Judy plays the role of one of the first Harvey Girls to push west to help set up the restaurants along the "Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe" railroad.

John Hodiak and Angela Lansbury share the spotlight in the film with, of course, everything turning out happily.

Fred MacMurray is keeping folks literally rolling in the aisles at the Quilna theatre where he is currently featured in "Pardon My Past" with Marguerite Chapman and Rita Johnson in the stellar roles opposite MacMurray, things begin happening when Fred finds himself mixed up with some sort of bill for $12,000 due immediately. Sharing the billing is "My Name Is Julia Ross" with Nina Foch, Dame May Whitty and host of supporting players.

Bedecked in the finery that only the old days of the west could afford is the film "San Antonio" now showing at the State theatre. Sharing the billing is "Yolanda and the Thief" with Fred Astaire, Lucille Bremer and Frank Morgan. Both guarantee a good time.

The Sigma has "A Letter for Tio" one of the funniest films to reach the screen of this theatre. With John Carroll, Marsha Hunt and Hume Cronyn, the film is magnificent for laughs and plenty of them.

A couple of westerns moved into the Allen theatre Wednesday and are thrilling audiences and fans right to the tips of their movie-going toes. The films are "Yellow Rose of Texas" and "The Old Barn Dance." The former stars Roy Rogers while the latter has another great western star, Gene Autry.

Delphos May Rent Part of City Farm
(Lima News Bureau)
DELPHOS, Feb. 11—The city planning and recreation board will suggest rental of a portion of the city farm, according to Council Clerk Arthur Wulffhorst, who said Monday his office will draw up legislation for such purposes for action of city council Tuesday evening. In a meeting of interested parties in an expansion of recreation at municipal stadium held this last week it became evident all ground was not being used.

The program will not be completed this year because of a lack of funds and some post-war study of other city plans which may affect the location, officials said. Tennis, soft and hard ball diamonds, a track and other amusements will come under this year's program.

Noted Speakers Due At Farmers' Meet
(Special to The Lima News)
VAN WERT, Feb. 11—Many farmers of Van Wert and adjoining territory are expected to attend sessions of County's Farmers' Week to be held Feb. 13 and 14, at the Marsh Foundation school in this city.

Among the state speakers will be Dr. J. W. Reeder, Columbus; Raymond Starbuck, D. D. Moyer, D. F. Beard of the Ohio State extension department and Carroll Streeter, editor of the Farm Journal.

Bette Davis To Star Monday On 'Radio Theatre' Program

Bette Davis recreates one of her most moving screen roles in "Now Voyager," when it is presented on the Radio Theatre at 8 p. m. Monday over CBS. William Keighley is the producer on the full-hour dramatic show.

Miss Davis takes the role of Charlotte Vale, a lonely spinster whose life has been dominated by a tyrannical mother. Plump and dowdy, a psychiatrist is called to examine the moody and neurotic girl. He recommends several months in his care and then sends her off on a South American cruise.

Bob Hawk sends jokes over the airwaves and snokes to men in service hospitals during his comedy quiz, "The Bob Hawk Show," at 7:30 p. m. Monday over CBS.

Thousands of free cigarettes will go to the U. S. Naval Hospital, Santa Cruz, Calif.; U. S. Army Welch hospital, Daytona Beach, Fla.; U. S. Marine hospital, Batavia, N. Y. Music for the program is furnished by Peter Van Stoolen and his orchestra. The broadcast, under the direction of Ken MacGregor, is announced by Charlie Stark.

Joan Davis hits for a birthday party and Swanville comes thru with a big celebration on "The Joan Davis Show," heard at 8:30 p. m. over CBS.

For a change Barbara Weatherly puts animosity aside and cooperates 100 per cent in making Joanie's party a sensational success. This glimpse of her stocky, safe, homey Barbara's get-together with Andy too much to make it a happy birthday for the "Queen of Comedy." Faithful old Harry von Zell comes thru with a novel solution that saves the day and Andy for Joanie.
