

Listeners' Choice

SPECIAL EVENTS

- 10:15 a. m.—W-G-N—June Baker interviews Paul Angle of Chicago Historical society.
10:45—WIND—Sen. Wiley [R., Wis.] speaks on Lincoln's birthday.
8:45 p. m.—WGNB—World of Tomorrow: Dean James C. Peegles discusses "Solar Energy and the Solar House."

VARIETY, COMEDY, AND DRAMA

- 10:00 a. m.—WLS—Breakfast In Hollywood. Guests: Quiz Kids.
2:30 p. m.—W-G-N—Judith Andrews, modern homemaker.
7:00—WLS—Lum and Abner, comedy sketch.
7:30—W-G-N—Adventures of the Falcon: "Death Paints In Oil."
7:30—WBBM—Theater of Romance: Alan Ladd in "Death Takes a Holiday."
8:00—WMAQ—Amos 'n' Andy fun show, with Hattie McDaniel.
8:30—WBBM—This Is My Best: "Jeff Raleigh's Plaud Solo."
8:30—WMAQ—Fibber McGee and Molly show.
9:00—WMAQ—Bob Hope, with Betty Hutton as a guest.
9:30—W-G-N—Crime Files of Flamond: "The Case of the Flighty Friend."

MUSIC

- Noon—WAAF—Symphonic hour: Classical selections.
8:00 p. m.—WENR—Guy Lombardo's orchestra.
8:30—W-G-N—Chicago Philharmonic orchestra, under the baton of Henry Weber, offers Mozart's Symphony No. 36, Sibelius' "Swan of Tuonela" and Schumann's "Liebesfruhling."
10:05—WIND—Symphonic hour: Shostakovich's Symphony No. 6.

Al Schacht, "America's clown prince of baseball," who will be June Merrill's guest on WJJD at 10:30 a. m. today.