

Modernized Nursery Rhyme Brought Out in State Film

Everyone's heard about Tommy Tucker who sang for his supper—well, now it has been modernized. A bevy of beautiful girls are singing for their passage on a ship in "Sing Your Way Home" the picture opening Wednesday at the State theatre.

With Jack Haley in the title role, the film tells the story of this group's plight to get home and the many things encountered on their way. It's a musical comedy aboard ship and turns out to be one of the first of many pictures to hit Lima fans squarely on the funny bone.

With only two more days left the film, "The Harvey Girls" at the Ohio theatre, folks will not want to miss attending. Packed with action and songs that sizzle with popularity, the picture has a new romantic team. It's Judy Garland and John Hodiak and, from the response they've been receiving from Lima fans, here's one reviewer that believes more will be seen of them in future films.

"THE HERO"—Jimmy Stewart turns out to be the hero in the fast-moving comedy film, "Jimmy Steps Out" opening at the Lyric theatre Wednesday. Paulette Goddard is featured opposite him.

Coming to Lima a day earlier than previous scheduled by the Theatre Guide, "Life With Blondie" brings Arthur Lake and Penny Singleton to the Quina theatre in one of the merriest of the series to hit Lima. Fans will begin laughing the minute the show opens and if they stop for any great length of time during the film it's highly unusual because the picture is, in no uncertain terms, a "scream."

Basil Rathbone as Sherlock Holmes solves another mystery in "Terror by Night" now showing at the Sigma theatre. Nigel Bruce, as his ever near cohort, Dr. Watson, plays his role, as usual, superbly well. "Strangler of the Swamp" the film now at the Sigma theatre with the former picture is another thriller you'll want to see.

Jimmy Stewart does some mighty unusual things in one of his funniest films, "Jimmy Steps Out" which has him cast with Paulette Goddard. Both Stewart and Goddard find themselves in the throes of some very unexpected happenings which lead to one of the craziest situations ever recorded on celluloid.

John Garfield returns to the Allen theatre in one of his outstanding pictures. Unusual in every sense, even to the fine points which go to make a film good, is this picture called "The Fallen Sparrow" which has Maureen O'Hara in the feminine role.

SEEKS MORE EQUIPMENT
HARROD, Feb. 13.—Paul E. Winegardner, mayor of Harrod, was named head of a committee formed to purchase new fire-fighting equipment for the village of Harrod, West Newton, Westminster and rural neighborhoods. More than 100 Auglaize tp citizens attended the meeting. Other officers are Russell Guy, vice president; Orin Steele, secretary, and Paul P. Harrod, treasurer.

Cantor Gets Entangled In Used Cars Wednesday

Eddie Cantor turns over in his rush to make a quick turn-over when he takes advantage of the high prices offered for used cars and sells Ida's roadster on "The Eddie Cantor Show" at 9 p. m. Wednesday over NBC.

The new owner, a beautiful blonde, embarrassed the banjo-eyed comedian no end by cruising around town in full view of neighbors who quickly come to the wrong conclusion. Eddie winds up wondering whether the gasoline age is a blessing, after all, and applies for a priority on a surrey with some fringe on top.

Cupid says, "Have a heart!" when Ann Sothern, as "Maisee" finds herself in hot water with her suitors, in the comedy show's pre-Valentine broadcast at 9:30 p. m. Wednesday over CBS.

Bella, dancing-skating star, will display her detecting ability when she is the amateur guest sleuth on the "Ellery Queen Show" at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday over CBS.

The master detective will try his hand at solving a murder mystery that baffled the San Francisco police in 1907.

When a big-shot gunman is released from the pen, he attempts to revive old gang-ster methods and re-enact the famed St. Valentine's Day massacre in "The Case of the Old Fashioned Valentine" program at 9:30 p. m. Wednesday over NBC.

A photographer who unselfishly has contributed his spare time for the past four years as a volunteer hospital orderly will be saluted as the "Big Little American" at 5-15 p. m. Wednesday over MBS.

If buttonholes become slightly raveled, fasten them with thread and rework with buttonhole or blanket stitch.
