Notes for You ...

By WILLIAM L. DOUDNA

GADGET: A gadget to elimiate radio-commercials was made public today at Alhambra, Calif., by Safety Engineer Morris A.
Kay, its inventor.
Kay said he had applied for a patent on the portable, adjustable device and had made samples for himself and friends. The listener turns the radio off at the start of the commercial, he said, and the gadget automatically turns it back on at the end.

BAN: Production of Thornton "Our Town" has been Wilder's "Our Town" has been banned in the Russian-controlled section of Berlin. The Russians say it is too depressing. It's being shown in the American sector.

LOSS: Hedy Lamarr reported to Hollywood police that a ruby pin worth $150 was missing from her dressing room.

STRIKE SETTLEMENT: High school pupils at Veronia, Ore. settled a strike Tuesday. They had struck against the Joy theater for lower admission prices, agreed to a compromise figure of 40 cents. The students first picketed the theater on Jan. 24, forcing its closing, when the theater owners, Mr. and Mrs. Zelma Dow, re-tused to lower admission prices for high school pupils from 50 to Children in the 25-cent bracket had supported the strike. RECOMMENDED RECORDS: Al Goodman orchestra (Victor): "Spellbound" and "Concerto" 12-inch disc with Irving Prager, violin, and Milton Rettenberg, Diano, as the respective soloists Duke Ellington orchestra (Vic-or): "The Wonder of You" and "I'm Just a Lucky So-and-So."

Arty Shaw and his gramercy Five (Victor):

son and Edward Everett Horton will appear with Rita Hayworth in "Down to Earth." Bryant Washburn, idol of silent-film fans, will have a part in a Columbia serial," Hop Harrigan. Two films stars and a director were missing from work today. Ingrid Bergman had her tonsil out last Saturday and she's still resting-doing nicely, too, according to her doctor.

George Raft wasn't on the set of his latest picture because he's in the hospital. He had an attack of pleurisy and his doctor says the actor must remain in the hospital at least a week.

Construction of the long-planprices.

"There is nothing in the law," hew city hall, because of the acute need for hospital facilities and an ordinance may discriminate hetween individuals or classes in the manner or terms of sale."

The suggest that need for hospital facilities and du Chien, and the Ludlow hotel, given precedence over Madison's Monroe; and damages to be deternew city hall, because of the acute mined from Kaber's Kafe, Prairie work on the new city hall probably will not be started this year, the mayor said, but a definite decision doubtless will be reached to the cuestion of a combined city sau, from selling potato chips and on the question of a combined city- sau, from selling potato chips and county building so plans can be popcorn at over-ceiling prices and started for construction next year.

Public improvements should not compete with labor and ma- quired records. terial needs for private housing in 1946, and should be undertaken only to take up any lag in employment, Kraege declared. Com-pletion of Madison's proposed pub-is lie works program for this year bringing this country to the brink can not be guaranteed in 1946, but of inflation, Sen. B. B. Hicken- some projects may be started, in-looper, (R-Ia.), said Tuesday cluding the hospital and vocational school addition.

Next in order he listed the new city hall, and street improvements, giving preference to federal aid projects including the S. Park st. and E. Washington ave. repaving and widening plans.

Lands for an additional-municipal parking lot also may be acquired this year, Kraege said, but the need for housing facilities on the lots purchased may prevent their use for parking until after the emergency, he explained. One improvement the city will not see in 1946, the mayor de-clared is a new municipal auditorium. Need for an auditorium was cited by Madison's first mayor in his first speech to the city council in 1856, Kraege said, and it is a hope that still awaits realiza-tion, but he predicted that future planning will solve the problem. John Barrys Mark
