

Adjustment of Couple Shown In Coming Sigma Feature

The post-war adjustment of a young married couple which finds personalities and former attraction altered after service in the British Navy and the WRENS, forms a touching and absorbing theme for the film "Vacation from Marriage," the film which will open at the Sigma Theatre Wednesday.

Robert Donat and Deborah Kerr are the principals in this London film, Donat playing Wilson, the dull clerk placidly married to Cathie, Miss Kerr, until the war brings about drastic changes in their humdrum lives. The once anemic clerk finds himself a new man under the rigors of Navy life, with the colorless Cathie also blossoming out under her training as a WREN.

"Scarlet Street," showing at the Ohio theatre has been stirring up quite a bit of conversation among Lima fans. Starring Edward G. Robinson, Joan Bennett and Dan Duryea the film is one of the most unusual films have viewed in a long time. The plot revolves about a man who tries to escape his age and the reality of life.

The Quilna, too, has a film as funny as the Ohio's film is startling. It tells of a burlesque actress who wanted a legitimate acting career but when she went to get it, found that she didn't have enough of what the producers called culture. Her tactics in getting this thing called culture are amazing and amusing. Sharing the billing is "Voice of the Whistler" with Richard Dix.

James Craig and Frances Gifford afford laughs galore as they appear in "She Went to the Races" now playing at State theatre. Craig plays the role of a sportsman who shares his apartment with several scientists who believe they can beat the ponies.

Adventures of this hero, an Ohio son, are dramatically and romantically told in this fascinating picture. The co-feature is "Boston Blackie Booked on Suspicion" with Chester Morris.

Alice Faye holds the stellar honors in "Hello Frisco, Hello," the film opening at the Allen theatre Wednesday. Sharing the bill will be "Saddle Serenade."

Cleveland Youth Finally Returns

CLEVELAND, Feb. 26—(INS)—Eight years of anxiety over his safety ended today for Mrs. Georgetown Plent as she welcomed her son, Paul, 35, back to his Cleveland home.

Paul was sent to Paris to visit his aunt in 1938 following the death of his father. He was to enroll in a private school there before he could return to his native country, war began.

The youth told of living and going to school in Occupied France. The Nazis killed 26 of his schoolmates for not obeying regulations, he said.

Rifle Bullet Kills Celina War Veteran

CELINA, Feb. 26—(INS)—Mercer-Coroner H. J. Huerkamp investigated today the death of Donald Dugan, 29-year-old son of Mrs. Anna Dugan of Celina.

Mrs. Dugan told officers Donald killed himself last night with a bullet from a rifle. She said he had been in ill health since he was discharged from the army. Dugan was a nephew of Federal Judge Frank L. Kioeb of Toledo. A brother, Frank, also resides at the family home.

Clever Detective Mystery Features 'Inner Sanctum'

Appearing as guest ghoul behind Paul McGrath's creaking door, radio headliner Larry Haines finds sleeping tablets a poor alibi for murder in "Now I Lay Me Down—To Murder," a crime-laden "Inner Sanctum" mystery to be broadcast at 9 p. m. Tuesday over CBS.

His wife is murdered in her sleep—his lawyer insists that the muzzled husband destroy some tell-tale evidence—a brother-in-law's mangled body is discovered in the basement. It takes a clever detective to piece together the jigsaw details of a gruesome dual murder but when the pieces are assembled they form a perfect eternal triangle.

Walter Brennan, one of film-dome's outstanding character actors plays the leading role with June Lockhart featured as his granddaughter when "This Is My Best" presents the "Blueprint for Happiness" at 9:30 p. m. Tuesday over CBS.

Brennan will be heard as an old man whose son and daughter-in-law with whom he lives, make life miserable for him. He adds to the family aggravation by opposing the marriage they are trying to force on their daughter. Attempts to get rid of the old man fail, when he works out his "Blueprint" and restores harmony to the family.
