

Robin Hood Feature Opens Friday At Quilna Theatre

Of all the swashbuckling and romantic characters fiction has to offer, one of the most fascinating is Robin Hood. Celebrated on the screen by Douglas Fairbanks in the silent era and later by Errol Flynn in sound and technicolor, once more the thrilling story of this famed personality and his doughty band is brought to the screen with some one new, the son of Robin Hood.

Cornel Wilde, the current matinee idol, is this son. The new film is called "The Bandit of Sherwood Forest" and will have its premiere in Lima at the Quilna theatre beginning Friday. The film tells the thrilling rescue of the young King Henry III of England after being imprisoned by the villainous regent. Wilde exceeds all expectations with his swordplay.

The Ohio theatre, too, has come forth with a masterpiece of film production in the picture "Spellbound" starring Ingrid Bergman and Gregory Peck. The two stars turn in performances which warrant hearty applause.

In the role of a woman psychiatrist, Miss Bergman attempts to cure a man who for some unknown reason cannot remember his identity.

A picture, which until V-Day, could not be released is currently playing at the Sina theatre entitled "Paris Underground" with Constance Bennett and Gracie Fields. The film will bow out Friday to be replaced by "Miss Susie Slagle's." The latter picture is the one you've been waiting for. It stars Sonny Tufts, Veronica Lake and a new star, Joan Caulfield and tells one of the most amusing yet tender stories ever to be rolled on a strip of celluloid.

Sharing the billing will be "Tokyo Rose" the story of a woman who tried to break the hearts of three million men.

Maisie goes flying around in a helicopter in her latest adventure film "Up Goes Maisie" currently playing at the State theatre. With George Murphy as her co-star, Ann Southern gives an amusing performance which has so endeared her to the hearts of movie fans. The co-feature is "Burma Victory." Coming Sunday will be "They Were Expendable" with Robert Montgomery, John Wayne and Donna Reed.

A story of a man's life ruined by fate is told in the film "Detour" which will open at the Lyric theatre Saturday midnight. With Tom Neal in the starring role it tells of a man haunted by the fact that he had killed a woman. Currently showing is "Old Texas Trail" with Rod Cameron, and "Identity Unknown." Richard Cromwell and Marsha Hunt have the starring roles in

Bob Burns Tells Tall Stories On Ginny Simms Show Friday

Bob "Buzooka" Burns, lends an Arkansas flavor to the "Ginny Simms Show" when the spinner of tall tales visits Miss Simms at 7:30 p. m. Friday over CBS.

Bob is on hand also to pipe aboard a special veteran guest who is aided on his career by Miss Simms as part of the singer's "Give A Discharged Serviceman A Job" campaign.

Henry Aldrich buttons himself up in a tight situation when he inadvertently trades dinner jackets with his father during "The Aldrich Family" comedy at 8 p. m. Friday to be broadcast over CBS.

Because Sam Aldrich needs his own formal attire for an important speech at Centerville's town hall, son Henry, who is to attend a formal dance the same evening at the country club, is compelled to hire a tuxedo. In typical Aldrich fashion, the jackets are switched. Henry finds himself with his dad's speech manuscript in his pocket and Mr. Aldrich reaches into his coat only to find a pair of tickets for the dance.
