

Films of Light Nature on Tap In Lima Theatres Saturday

A host of movies with light hearted themes are on schedule for Lima theatregoers Saturday when they begin another fun-filled week-end.

At the Sigma theatre is one which has received nation-wide acclaim and well deserves it. "Miss Susie Slagle's" is the kind of picture that film-goers haven't seen in a long time. It is warm, mellow and rich with the romance of our country in the year 1910—the dawn of the 20th century.

It not only brings such players as Veronica Lake, Sonny Tufts and the new star, Joan Caulfield to the screen, it brings a popular veteran actress back to the screen. Lillian Gish plays the proprietress of a boarding house for young medical students and "Miss Susie Slagle's" is the story of these students—their trials and tribulations, their hopes and fears and loves.

A tightly interwoven psychological film is on tap for those who attend the Ohio theatre. It's the long awaited film "Spellbound" which is luring audiences thru the doors. The picture tells of a young man possessed of amnesia and of the woman psychiatrist who gives her all to pull him out of the state he is in. Ingrid Bergman and Gregory Peck have the starring roles in this film which will nearly shock you from your chair.

We move back in history to the 13th century when the sword ruled nearly always. In the film "Bandit of Sherwood Forest" theatre audiences will be lifted from the reality to the age when the glitter of gold and pagantry reigned. Cornel Wilde has the starring role in this story of the son of Robin Hood and how he lifted the burden from the shoulders of the oppressed. Now showing at the Quilna theatre.

The story of the PT boats which aided MacArthur in his safe escape from the island of Bataan is told in story and film form in "Detour" the film which will open at the Lyric theatre Saturday midnight. Sharing the billing will be "Rhythm Round-Up."

Those two western stars are back again—Gene Autry and Roy Rogers. Gene is coming to the Allen theatre in "Rhythm Round-Up" while Roy will appear in "San Fernando Valley" both thrilling western films.

Sonja Henie plays her role well, both dramatically and romantically, in the picture "It's a Pleasure" opening Sunday at the Majestic theatre. Sharing the billing will be "Thin Man Goes Home" with William Powell and Myrna Loy.
