

News Reporter Entangled In Sigma Film Wednesday

A newspaper reporter after a murderer forms the exciting theme of the picture, "I Ring Doorbells," opening at the Sigma theatre Wednesday.

The guilty one might as well be a dead duck, figuratively speaking, in this fast moving film, which takes the audience on one of the merriest adventures in screenland. Sharing the billing is "Riding on Air," and if you can do it without an airplane, you'll make history. Both pictures are packed with fun and enjoyment for the whole family.

Wrapped in suspense from beginning to end, the film "Spellbound" continues its entanglement at the Ohio theatre, packing the house every night. Its stars present the story in such a form that your eyes won't leave the screen for a moment—it's that suspenseful. Gregory Peck and Ingrid Bergman have the starring roles in this highly psychological film which has received such wide acclaim throughout the nation.

Score one for chivalry because it has returned—in film form, gentlemen! Yes, in "Bandit of Sherwood Forest" with Cornel Wilde and Anita Louise.

"They Were Expendable" with Robert Montgomery, John Wayne and Donna Reed; also "Dick Tracy."

"State Fair" is stirring up quite a commotion at the Lyric theatre with the scramble for seats in order to view the film. Also on in Lima sometime ago, the film was missed by any number of people and has been brought back to give folks a second try at it. "Shanghai Cobra" with Sidney Toler is the co-feature.

Two new films "Gallant Fools" and "Girl from God's Country" will open at the Allen theatre Wednesday. Now showing at the theatre is "Rootin' Tootin' Rhythm" with Gene Autry and "San Fernando Valley" with Roy Rogers.

Nylon Hose Are Death Lure On 'Suspense' Show Tuesday

A number of women have their nylon hosiery solved forever when radio ace Santos Ortega, appearing as guest ghoul behind Your Host Paul McGrath's creaking door, displays an up-to-the-minute murder obsession in "Strands of Death," a gasp-provoking "Infer Sanctum" mystery to be broadcast at 9 p. m. Tuesday over CBS.

New nylons are both the lure and the murder implement in this weird tale of a frustrated soul whose wife runs off with another man—and the pair of stockings he stood in line for hours to buy for her. A vengeful scheme to do away with unwomanly by luring innocent victims to death with nylons, develops a deep run when a woman detective gets on the murder trail. Joan Canfield and Lee Bowman will replace the originally scheduled stars, Jane Wyman and Ronald Reagan, on "This Is My Best" dramatization of the mystery epic "The Gentleman Dressed in News-papers" at 9:30 p. m. Tuesday over CBS.

Judy Foster keeps at her old tricks with her brother, Randolph, ably assisting her in all her escapades on the "Date with Judy" show at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday over NBC.

The "Adventures of the Falcon" will be heard at the same time over MBS.

Fibber McGee and Molly start out on a new idea in their program to be heard at 9:30 p. m. over NBC. But, as usual, their idea never is developed completely or accomplished.
