Officers E. J. Gruendler and Roland Zerbel spotted the youth as he speeded on S. Fark st. and ran a stop light. He had five other boys in the car.

The policemen chased the speeding car on Park, Mound, Mills, and Drake sts., and 2 miles out the Oregon rd. to the Nine Springs hill where they fired the shots into the air. Gruendler said their squad car was traveling in 70 miles per hour and the youth was "going away from us."

In court today, the boy told Superior Judge Roy H. Protor he tried to speed away from the officers because he had no money to pay a fine.

He went to jail for 15 days, mable to pay a $25 fine for reckless driving.
