Old, New America Depicted In Films Showing Saturday

Melodrama, comedy, musicals-all are to be found on the screens of Lima theatres Saturday. Western films find their place among the others, too, helping to round out a true variety for the day.

Old America is well represented in the Ohio theatre's "Saratoga Trunk" now showing. With Ingrid Bergman and Gary Cooper in the starring roles, the film tells of a girl named Clio Dulaine who returns to New Orleans to get revenge on | the parentsof her father who mistreated her mother. Gary Cooper plays the role of Clinton Maroon. Both stars carry their roles thru to the peak of perfection.

The Quilna theatre, too, offers some fine fun with two new stars carrying title roles. New America can be seen in this film which tells of a returned serviceman who, to his family, seems just like a baby, even the he has been in Excitement reigns supremo thruout, especially when what seems to be his wives, come pouring in upon the household of the family. The name of the film is "Snafu" and is one that folks wen't want to miss.

More than half the 1,800 employes at the Moraine division of General Motors Corp., will receive pay increases above the 18 1-2 cents an hour granted nationally by the company, under an agreement which ended a 129-day-old strike at the plant last night, a joint compant-union announcement said. The union's local 696 voted 25 to

I in favor of a new one-year contract with the company, and Wayne E. Taylor, personnel director of the fum, said maintenance workers were called back today to prepare the plant for the return of all production workers Monday. The new wage agreement offers hourly-rated production employes, comprising 55 per cent of the personnel, a 23 cents hourly pay increase over the pre-strike wage rate, the announcement said.
