

'Three Strangers' To Begin At State Theatre Thursday

Mystery at its peak will be found in the film "The Three Strangers" opening at the State theatre Thursday. With Geraldine Fitzgerald, Sydney Greenstreet and Peter Lorre in the starring roles, the picture is threaded together with an unusual factor—a Chinese goddess.

Three plots revolving around each of these three persons have both intrigue and suspense not accomplished by any other film to date.

Strange settings and weird happenings are to be found in the film. Sharing the billing will be "Riverboat Rhythm" with Leon Errol.

Fast-moving mystery and drama are to be found in the film, "Deadline at Dawn," now showing at the Ohio theatre and starring Susan Hayward, Paul Lukas and Bill Williams.

A riotous love story intermingled with the thunder of rolling newspaper presses and the banging of the wealthy citizens' fists against tables ordering Colonel Effingham's Raid, is told in the film "Colonel Effingham's Raid," now showing at the Quilna theatre.

James Stewart and Rosalind Russell find, in portraying their movie marriage, that it's not what it's cracked up to be in the film "No Time for Comedy," now showing at the Sigma theatre.

Clare Trevor is cast in the starring role of "Woman of the Town," now showing at the Allen theatre.

Henry S. Stout, Dayton, will speak on the topic, "One Small Candle," at the Thursday noon meeting of the Lima Life Underwriters-ssn.

John L. Packer, 68, a leader in Ohio circles of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics, died yesterday in Mercy hospital.

Looking At HOLLYWOOD

HOLLYWOOD, Apr. 17—(NEA)—News Item: "Lesley FitzPatrick wife of Travelogue Producer James A. FitzPatrick, becomes mother of fifth child."

On the screen Tom Conway bears little resemblance to his brother, George Sanders. But off the screen he is often mistaken for George.

Overheard at a sit-down Hollywood cocktail party: He to She "Here come the photographers. Would you mind turning the other way, darling? My left side is my best profile, and all you have to do is cross your legs."

"Hell!": No Smoking. The movie Hell that Director Archie Mayo used for an important sequence in "Angel On My Shoulder" had a particular form of torture for Paul Muni, Claude Rains, and other actor occupants.

Judicial Consideration. Bill Burton, manager of Dick Haymes and Helen Forrest, tells about the independent producer who was discussing a business deal with an actor.

Keenan Wynn explains his film success thusly: "When I came to Hollywood all I played was tough New York gangsters. Then somebody cast me as Katharine Hepburn's alcoholic cousin in "Without Love."

Cesar Romero Is Toreador On Eddie Cantor Broadcast

Eddie Cantor treks down to Mexico to watch goggle-eyed while toreador Cesar Romero encounters his first bull on "The Eddie Cantor Show" at 9 p. m. Wednesday over NBC.

Romero makes a guest appearance on Eddie's show to solicit advice and encouragement for the big event. The No. 1 bullfighting expert, tender-hearted Cantor rings in to help Cesar, turns out to have a Russian accent, none other than the "Mad Russian."

A phony employment agency, Glia in search of jobs, and ex-WAC whose suspicions lead to murder are brought together in "The Case of the Blood-stained Job" on "Mr. District Attorney" at 9:30 p. m. Wednesday over NBC.

The ex-WAC, seeking help from "Mr. D. A.," enlists the aid of special investigator Harrington who, with Secretary Miss Miller, smashes the racket and brings a pair of murderers to justice.

Helen Forrest will be the whistle attraction on the Bob Crosby Show at 9:30 p. m. Wednesday over CBS. Miss Forrest is a musical success on the air, records and more recently in movies.

The six Goldwyn girls, now on a visit to New York, will lead a hand to supper sleuth Ellery Queen as armchair detectives for the "Adventure of Nikki Porter, Murder Victim" at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday over CBS.
