

'Frontier Gal' Is Held Over At Sigma Until Saturday

It's hard to believe that folks actually demand that a film be held over, but just drop around to the Sigma theatre box office sometime and listen to the folks clamor.

Either, "I've a friend that I want to see it," or "Can't you hold over the film until my sister arrives," or something of the same sort will be heard just before a show is getting ready to close.

To comply with the demands of the public, the Sigma theatre is continuing the film "Frontier Gal" with Yvonne De Carlo and Rod Cameron. True enough, the film, on its own merits, is worthy of hold over billing, but public demand was so great that the film is being kept in Lima a few more days.

"Adventure," one of the most rickety films to date, has the new Clark Gable and Greer Garson in the title roles and is currently showing at the Ohio theatre. It's good to see Gable back on the screen with Miss Garson relieving herself of the costumes of earlier days and appearing in something of the 20th century era. That's just what happens in this film.

A story with a love story so deep it will move you right down to the innermost recesses of your soul, is the film "Sentimental Journey" now showing at the Quilna theatre. John Payne, as the husband of Maureen O'Hara, cannot understand his wife. He's not positive of the emotional attitudes often taken by her, and thus cannot understand her wanting to adopt an orphan child. You'll be thrilled with its great dramatic power.

Sonny Tufts, Veronica Lake and Jean Caulfield will be starred in "Miss Susie Slagle" opening at the State theatre Thursday. Telling the story of the boarding house where medical students have made their homes for a number of years, and from whose portals have gone some of the most famous surgeons of that particular era, the picture will bring both drama and comedy to the screen. Currently playing at the theatre is "Cinderella Jones" with Joan Leslie and Robert Alda.

Johnny Weissmuller has the starring role in "Tarzan and the Green Goddess" a mystery-adventure film about the King of the Jungle. How he combats obstacles which would be insurmountable to the modern man unless he had a gun, is told and shown in this film. The picture now is showing at the Lyric theatre.

"Long Voyage Home" and "Frontier Scout" are films billed for showing Wednesday at the Allen theatre. Currently playing at the theatre is "Rogue's Gallery" with Frank Jenks and "Fugitive of the Plains" with Buster Crabbe.

Richard Widmark To Guest On 'Inner Sanctum' Tuesday

Appearing as guest ghoul behind the creaking door, radio headline Richard Widmark takes his bride to the family cemetery, shows her a freshly dug grave and sweetly explained that it is all hers, in "Make Ready My Grave," an eerie "Inner Sanctum" mystery to be broadcast at 9 p. m. Tuesday over CBS.

This well-meaning guy marries a librarian from Brooklyn but doesn't explain the family curse until five generations of the women of the family have met violent deaths, but in this case the girl is too smart to fall for superstitions.

Judy decides to impress the handsome new postman and begins sending herself mushy notes on penny postcards but in addition to the mailman: it is her father who is impressed. Father imagines a heavy love affair and raises havoc when "Penny Postcards" is heard on a "Date With Judy" to be heard at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday over NBC.

A championship fight and a "fix" by gamblers add spice to the romance of a fighter and a small town school teacher when Eddie Albert and Marguerite Chasman, co-star in William Fay's "Wait Till the Sun Shines Kelly," on "This Is My Best" at 9:30 p. m. Tuesday over CBS.

A couple of gawking little old ladies, with a nephew who "isn't as nice as he should be," nearly lead to the downfall of "Nick Carter, Master Detective" when he becomes involved in "The Case of the Little Old Ladies" at 8 p. m. Tuesday over MBS.

Phony photographs lead to a double blackmail and murder in the "Adventures of the Falcon" mystery pacer, "Murder is a Snap" to be heard at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday over NBC.

In a reminiscent mood, the Kingfish tells "Amos 'n' Andy" of his courtship troubles with his wife, Sapphire, and her mother on the program "Amos 'n' Andy" to be heard at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday over NBC.

Rotary Club Hears Student Nurse Choir

A program of vocal selections was presented for the Rotary club at noon Monday by the Memorial hospital student nurses' choir, directed by William G. Tempel.

Solo numbers included "Turn Ye to Me," sung by Jean Everett, and "Romany Life," sung by Beulah Spahr. Group numbers included Downland's "Come Again, Sweet Love," "Widdie Calico," a Ukrainian melody, "Clouds," by Charles, "In the Still of Night" and Jerome Kern's "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes."

Looking At HOLLYWOOD with ERSKINE JOHNSON

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
 NEA Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Apr. 23—If the professor will kindly play some sad background music, we will discuss today the Hollywood housing shortage. "What's that? You're being excited, professor? Sorry, old fellow, but we can't help you."

Of course there's a housing shortage in Hollywood. Actors are housekeeping in their studio dressing rooms, and studios have had to buy Beverly Hills mansions to shuck up out-of-town visitors.

Houses are being sold, re-sold, and re-sold at terrific prices. The only ones not worried, it seems, are the cartoon stars and Johnny Weissmuller, Mickey Mouse and the rest will always have their inkwells, and the king of the jungle can always sleep in a tree house.

Susan's Sad Plight

Just to see what goes on, let's look in on a scene of domestic chaos — the home of red-haired Susan Hayward, her husband, Jess Barker, her year-old twin sons, a nurse, a maid, and a mongrel dog.

Up until a few days ago, life was beautiful. The Barkers were renting a three-bedroom Bel Air home for $350 a month. Their year's lease was expiring but the real estate agency said it would be renewed.

Then it happened. The owner came home suddenly from Canada. They would have to move. Soon they were still looking. But let Jess tell it:

"Sure, we can buy a lot of those Spanish-type houses built in 1925 for $30,000 and up. They're worth maybe $8,000 and most of them are broken-down wrecks. The real estate people all give us the same line: 'You can do wonderful things with this house.' Sure we can do wonderful things — with another $10,000."

"We heard of a house near us in Bel Air. The price was $35,000. We want to see it. The real estate man recognized Susan. The price suddenly shot up to $55,000."

Can't Afford $55,000

"And we just can't afford $55,000," Susan wailed. "Sure, I've saved a little money. It's all I've got. I've been saving it for a rainy day. I just can't see putting it all into a house. Especially now when taxes are so high. Sure, make good money, but you should see those checks I write to the Treasury Department."

Susan looked as if she were going to cry. Jess looked as if he were going to cry. The twins looked as if they were going to cry.

We didn't tell them about a little man on Wilshire Boulevard who rented a five-bedroom home to an eastern family the other day for only $250 a month, with a month's rent in advance in cash. We didn't have the heart to tell them, as the little man immediately disappeared with the $250 cash. Because, you see, he had no right to rent the house. He had just "borrowed" the key and rented the place while the owner was at work.

2 Lima Soldiers Enter Hospital

Two Lima veterans have been admitted to the Oliver general hospital, Augusta, Ga., for treatment after returning from overseas duty, according to a public relations notice from Augusta.

They are Cpl. Raymond Holler, Lima Route 4, and I-S Vernon E. Custer, 1067 1/2 S. Main-st. Holler was a member of the infantry and served a year and a half. Custer spent three years with an anti-aircraft artillery division.

4 Lima Area Men Receive Navy 'Ducks'

Four Lima men and a district man were among Ohioans who received honorable discharges from the U. S. Navy Apr. 18 thru the Great Lakes Naval Separation center, Great Lakes, Ill.

Returned to a civilian status are Robert C. Frueh, P. 1-c, 407 E. High-st.; M. L. Mitchell, Jr., C. M. 2-c, Lima Route 4; Clifton A. Willis, R. M. 2-c, 1027 Bruce-av; Melvin R. Stebleton, S. C. 3-c, 914 Reese-av, and Richard G. Graham, A. O. M. 2-c, Crider'sville.

Only four Presidents have been pictured on United States coins of general circulation — Lincoln on the cent, Washington on the nickel and Franklin D. Roosevelt on the new dime.
