

'Tars and Spars' To Open At Quilna Theatre Friday

"Tars and Spars," the Coast Guard show which toured the country so successfully as a stage musical, is now being brought to the screen under the same name, but with a freshening up of story material and an addition of Hollywood talent. It opens Friday at the Quilna theatre.

As Howie Young, Alfred Drake, a new Hollywood personality, plays the role of the Coast Guard man who always is trying to get active service and always gets his same old desk job. He is human and comic and actually makes the show.

One of the most unusual stories to be screened is the story "Devotion" telling of the lives of Charlotte, Emily and Anne Bronte. Paul Henreid plays a starring role in this film telling of the famous sisters and how uneventful their lives were in comparison to their books which were filled with activity.

Yvonne De Carlo and Rod Cameron will bow out at the Sigma theatre where "Frontier Gal" has been playing for the last week to make room for "Whistle Stop" with George Raft and Ava Gardner. The latter is packed with excitement and is a typical George Raft picture.

Sonny Tufts as a doctor does pretty well in the dramatic role he portrays in the film "Miss Susie Slagle's" now showing at the State theatre. Joan Caulfield has a featured role which adds up to one nearly as good as Veronica Lake's.

Ted Donaldson plays the leading role in the film "Adventures of Rusty" currently showing at the Lyric theatre. Buster Crabbe is featured in the title role of "Prairie Rustlers" the co-feature.

George Raft will appear on another screen Friday in "Johnny Angel" with Signe Hasso and Claire Trevor as supporting actresses. Sharing the bill is Dennis O'Keefe in "Brewster's Millions." "Here Comes Elmer" is the name of the film opening at the Allen theatre with "Santa Fe Saddlemate" starring Sunset Carson.

Archie Gives a Fashion Show With Miss Williams as Star

Having returned from Seattle, Wash., where he was guest at the Red Cross Fashion show, Ed "Archie" Gardner decides to put some class into the bistro and engages glamorous Esther Williams to adorn a fashion parade at "Duffy's Tavern," during the broadcast at 8:30 p. m. Friday over NBC.

When "Duffy" buzzes "Archie" to get an elegant model for the event, the counterman tries to persuade the shapely Esther Williams to be his "finch chick." Even with "Clifton Finnegan" masquerading as a "Travis-Adrian," Miss Williams seems a little uncertain about taking the job. She finally consents—much to her sorrow.

Tommy Riggs and his little friend, "Betty Lou," put on their best party manners when they make a guest appearance on "The Ginny Simms Show" at 7:30 p. m. Friday over CBS.

Alan Young, embroiled in his usual romantic confusion, seeks help from Hollywood producer, George Jessel, when the movie mogul visits the "Alan Young Show" at 9 p. m. Friday over NBC.

Henry Aldrich's "quiet two-some" with girl-friend Kathleen, develops into a free-for-all party, during the "Aldrich Family" comedy show at 8 p. m. Friday over CBS.

When Kathleen agrees to come over to his house for a quiet evening of concentration on Roman history, Henry's exaltation is short-lived—for bosom pal Homer has spread the word about town that the Aldrich family is throwing a big party.

MAN KILLED BY TREE

Looking At HOLLYWOOD with ERSKINE JOHNSON

HOLLYWOOD, Apr. 26.—(NEA)
—Linda Darnell has ordered construction of a nursery for the baby she and Pev Marley will adopt when she completes her next motion picture. . . Myrna Loy and Bill Powell are slated to co-star in their sixth Thin Man picture. The film will be titled "Song of the Thin Man," and will include the 9-year-old son of Nick Charles. . . Former silent star Monte Blue is celebrating his 36th year as a film actor. He made his first movie in 1911. . .

Producer Ralph Staub is planning a "Screen Snapshots" reel on famous movie mothers. The film will include Rita Hayworth, Hedy Lamarr, Betty Grable, Loretta Young, and their mothers. . . Ronald Colman is up for the title role in a film version of the famous classic, "Lord Chesterfield's Letters to His Son." GARY RINGS THE BELL
Gary Cooper becomes the highest-paid film star per production for his work in the film, "Cloak and Dagger." Cooper has been guaranteed $500,000, on the basis of 10 per cent of its world gross. . . Katharine Hepburn announces that she is going back to Broadway after completing two films at M-G-M. She's now co-starring with Robert Taylor in "Undercurrent," and will be seen next opposite Spencer Tracy in "Sea of Grass."

Geraldine Fitzgerald denies reports that she plans to divorce her husband, Edward Lindsay-Hogg. . . John Carradine lands his first movie role in a year, with George Sanders in "Bel Ami." . . Mae West tells us that her costumes for "Ring Twice Tonight" are being designed to "accentuate the positive." . . M-G-M actress Margie Pemberton, who just divorced Director Busby Berkeley, is thinking about getting married again—to Busby Berkeley.

The Italian government has finally approved the release of American movies in Italy. Hollywood will send them about 100 pictures a year. . . Jack Haley is planning to bring back vaudeville (what, again?) in a series of two-reel shorts starting old vaudeville stars.

HEADS HOPE LOSES
Jack Benny and Bob Hope expect to toss a coin to see who goes where—Europe or Japan—this summer. Both are planning overseas tours. . . A Hollywood Boulevard theatre marquee featured quite a sign recently: "The Sailor Takes a Wife and Selected Shorts."

Bonita Granville's mother plans to marry Tom Bodkin, manager of Gertrude Nielsen. . . Hollywood is using dye ice to prevent overheating of movie cameras in long scenes. No, it wasn't on the set of "Forever Amber." . . Musical director Edgar (Cookie) Fairchild is out of danger after a heart attack. . . Jack Carson came up with a classic comment when he found Ann Sheridan and Director Vincent Sherman working together on the same set at the Warner studio. "Look," said Carson, "Sherman and Sheridan—first time they've gotten together since the Civil War."

DEPOT PROJECT SET
TOLEDO, Apr. 26.—(UP)—Tentative plans call for work to start on Toledo's new railroad station July 1, it was announced today by New York Central Railroad Attorney Milo J. Warner. He said the date might have to be moved back because of building material shortages.
