The student scholarship-loan fund established at the University of Wisconsin two years ago as a living memorial in honor of the late Prof. Julius E. Olson of the Scandinavian department has passed the $10,000 mark, M. E. McCaffrey, secretary of the board of regents, reported at the board's meeting in Bascom hall

The fund was established in 1944, and contributions from Wisconsin alumni have been coming to the university and alumni association steadily, McCaffrey re-ported. The university will continue to accept contributions, he said the fund is used to aid needy, outstanding students gàin their education.

and stags at 14.10.
Good and choice fed steers and yearlings moved higher in mid-week but weakened late, finishing about steady. Common and medium grades were 25c lower and all grades closed were constructed by the contra steady. Common and medium grades closed extremely slow as a result of narrow week-end eastern shipper demand. Receipts dropped to the smallest in three years with steers and terming prodominating, and fed heliers scarce. Cows showed in larging numbers. Fed heliers were strong, medium and good beef cows mostly 50-75e lower, and other beef cows, camers and cutters mostly 50e lower. Buils dropped 50e to $1.00, and good and choice vealers were 50e lower. Weighty steers made an extreme top of $18.00, and long yearlings $17.75. Best fed heliers $17.25, quotable to $17.50, and bulking from $14.50-16.85. Most beef cows closed from $10.00-12.50. little above $14.00. Top vealers were $16.00. with only scattered selects at $18.50.

were $16.00. with only scattered selects at $18.50.

More lambs appeared on Monday than in the next four days combined as producers tried to, beat the subsidy reduction date on May 11. Slaughter lambs realized 25-50c compared with a week ago with prices up $1.00 in spots late over the week's low. Fod wooled westerns topped at $81.00 carly but moved up to $16.05 for one load of choice 108 lb. Colorados late. Cood to choice fed clipped lambs with No. 1 and No. 2 pelts brought $15.00-15.00. Choice wooled slaughter ewes as high as $7.75, with the practical top on shorn kind $1.50. demand good.
Rye: No. 2 Wisconsin quotable $2.68-2.73, including plump. Western No. 2 quotable $2.68-2.73, including plump.
