

New Film Opens Engagement At Quilna Theatre Friday

Motion picture "families" are becoming more natural every day. The public's response to the family series has made the studios more conscious of their Aldriches, Harbys, and Bumsteads—especially the last of the three.

Coming to the screen of the Quilna theatre Friday will be that family in "Blondie's Lucky Day" and will be parading the family troubles and pleasures across the screen for the entertainment of all for the next few days. Dazzling, this time, tries his hand at solving the housing shortage, and, as the usual trend of affairs go, winds up in the dog house.

William Powell forsakes his familiar flip detective characterizations for an entirely different role in "The Hoodlum Saint" opening at the Sigma theatre Saturday. In the new picture he returns to the type of drama reminiscent of his first appearance on the screen.

In the background is America shortly after World War I and its plot points a parallel between the postwar problems of that day and the postwar issues of today.

With a host of stars, the film "Ziegfeld Follies" opens at the Ohio theatre Friday. Comedy, spectacle, music and dancing are blended with masterpieces. You'll see Fred Astaire dancing with Lucille Bremer in two numbers; Fanny Brice, Home Crosby and Bill Frawley in their hilarious "Sweepstakes Ticket" sketch, and many others.

Deanna Durbin continues the engagement at the State theatre in "Because of Him" with Charles Laughton and Franchot Tone. The film is scheduled to stay until Saturday. Sunday will bring the two films, "I Was Faithful" and "Tarzan and the Leopard Woman."

Wild Bill Elliott is currently to be seen in the film "Sheriff of Redwood Valley," a western which is certain to delight all Lima theatre western fans. Sharing the billing is "Danny Boy," "Lumberjack" and "The Leopard Woman" at the Allen theatre. The former has Fred Keating as star while "Lumberjack" has William Boyd in the role of Hopalong Cassidy.

Tom Conway is currently thrilling audiences at the Majestic theatre with his powers of detection in "Falcon in Frisco." The co-feature is the laugh-riot of current fame, "Guest Wife" with Dr. Ameche, Claudette Colbert and Dick Foran.

Urges Fund Boost For Mental Care

CLEVELAND, May 10—(AP)—State Senator James Metzgenbaum (D-Cuy) appealed to Gov. Frank J. Lausche yesterday to call the legislature into special session immediately to act upon Ohio's mental hygiene program.

Sen. Metzgenbaum told the Lake Erie firm's assn that a $4,500,000 maintenance fund appropriated to pay doctors, nurses and attendants and buy proper food for institutions was not sufficient, and declared "the legislature will supply more at once if the governor will but make that possible by calling us into special session."

Looking At HOLLYWOOD

with ERSKINE JOHNSON

HOLLYWOOD, May 10—(NEA)—The Casbah was out-of-bounds to GIs, so to keep them happy the USO gave them 18-year-old Roubia Bey, lady with the educated torso. Roubia danced all the way from Tunis to Sicily to Italy, with tumultuous wolf calls drowning out her three-piece native orchestra.

When the war ended, Roubia followed the boys home, and got herself an agent. Now she's doing her "exotic temptation" dances in a new movie International's "Bella Donna," and in a Hollywood night club, the Morocco.

Her night club dances are pretty much the same as those the GIs swooned over in Africa and in Italy.

Both the censors and the cameraman complained. "The censors said firmly: 'Clean it up.' The cameraman said: 'She wiggles so much I can't keep anything in focus.'"

Roubia is black-haired and tiny. She told us: "American audiences are wonderful. They just whistle and stamp their feet. In Tunis the natives just sit and watch and say nothing. But then they follow you home."

Roubia was born in Tunis, the daughter of a French army lieutenant and Lola Freeman Calvert, a Columbus, Ohio, school teacher who went to Tunis to teach in the harem of Mohammed Bey. Roubia was raised in the harem, started dancing there when she was six years old. Just before the war she was a North African night club star, getting $1000 a week.

When the Germans took Tunis, Rommel heard about Roubia, ordered a command performance. Roubia refused. Rommel threatened to kill two Jewish boys who were playing in her night club orchestra.

"So I danced for him at German headquarters," she said. "He spoke perfect English. One of his aides handed me some money in an envelope after my dance. I gave it back and went home."

Roubia may like American audiences, but she says she cannot understand why her "dance of ecstasy," "voo-doo dance," and "dance of the seven veils" are objectionable to the movie censors.

"They are only native dances," she said, naively. "I don't know whether she was kidding or not. Anyway, her mother picks her up and takes her home after every night club performance."

Modern Interpretation
A WRITER working on a new script about medieval England was called to the studio front-office the other day and confronted by a wild-eyed executive. "Look," stormed the big boss, "aren't you getting too much modern slang into this script?"

The writer was puzzled. "Not that I know of," he said. "Okay," said the producer, tossing him a page from the script. "What, then, is all this 'Yes, sir-ee,' and 'No, sir-ee,' stuff doing in the script?"

The writer, controlling himself, politely explained that he wasn't writing, "Yes, sir-ee" and "No, sir-ee." He was writing, "Yes, sire," and "No, sire."

CASE IS DISMISSED
CLEVELAND, May 10—(AP)—Lillian T. West, 24-year-old night club entertainer, was charged with engaging in a lewd performance—the "devil dance." But Municipal Judge David C. Meek, Sr., dismissed the case yesterday, saying the police affidavit was "intentionally drawn" and "offensive to womanly modesty or common decency."

Henry Runs into Bad Luck Friday in Search for Gift

Henry Aldrich strikes some sour notes when he trades on his mother's musical tastes in shopping for a Mother's Day gift during "The Aldrich Family" comedy broadcast at 7 p. m. Friday over CBS. Henry, his sister, Mary, and pal Homer all have their hearts set on buying an only available music box which plays "Take Me Out to the Ball Game," but the honors fall to Homer when the Aldrich offspring learn that their mother detests the tune. Homer, meanwhile, learns that his mother wants an electric organ and he winds up with an unreasonable facsimile thereof. In the light of her expectations, Mrs. Aldrich eventually has to settle for a token remembrance.

Alan (Vocal Yodel) Young, who thinks eight-to-the-bar refers to a tavern octet, polishes his pear-shaped tones in preparations for a musical melee with Lauritz Melchior when the famous Wagnerian tenor visits the "Alan Young Show" at 8 p. m. Friday over ABC.

Last man in the romantic round for Betty Dittenfeffer's hand, Alan lands a couple of well-placed obligations during his weekly bout with rival Hubert Updike.

Another round of fun is in store for listeners when they hear "Duffy's Tavern" at 7:30 p. m. Friday over NBC. Changing back to the original line of patter from which the entire cast deviated on last week's program in order that stress may be put on the need for food for the war-ravaged countries, the group including Finnegan, "Eddie the Waiter," and "Miss Duffy" and Ed "Archie" Gardner all begin more of their crazy ideas.

BULL PRICE SETS RECORD
COLUMBUS, May 10—(AP)—C. E. Wilson, president of General Motors Corp., paid the record price of $16,300 for an Ayrshire bull yesterday at the Ayrshire Breeders' assn grand national sale. In another record purchase, he paid $2,200 for a three-year-old cow, Woodhull Judy.
