C months, prices were at celling and trading very active. Receipts were short of predictions and a reduction in shipments were noted. Virtually all barrows and gilts at the 14.85 celling, with sows and stags at 14.10.

Cattle receipts again receded, although there was a slight improvement locally as compared with a wock ago. Fed steers and yearlings predominated in the run with the majority at 15.75-17.00; practical top 17.80 paid for both long yearlings as well as weighty steers. The practical top on fed heliers 17.40, most load lots 18.00-17.25. Heliers closed firm, cows strong to 25 cents higher, very scarce; buils steady to strong; vealers firm; stock cattle weak to 25 cents lower, weighty kind showing most decline. Most beef cows sold from 8.50-12.75, outside 14.75; heavy beef buils to 14.50; vealers 16.50 down; most stockers and feeders 14.00-18.00.

Sheep receipts were light. Wooled and clipped lambs 25 to 50 cents lower. Spring lambs were scarce with ewes in light supply. A short load late Friday or strictly good and choice were 15.00-17.25, Several loads wheat-pastured woolskins 16.00-17.00; top led clipped lambs 17.25; bulk shorn lambs 14.00-17.25, including southwestern wheat-pastured kind with No. 1 skins at 16.50-16.75. Package choice ewes No. 1 pelt credits 8.50, bulk common to choice 8.75-8.25.

Cattle: Receipts 4,109. Fairly netive, prices on the strong side, cows fully 25 cents higher than last Friday. Closing: canners and cutters $7.50-9.00; choice cows to $12.50 on dairy-breds; 13.50 on beef cows: choice weighty-dairy-bred bulls $12.75-13.00; common light hulls $9.00-11.00; best cattle of the week from Franksville, $17.50. Calves: Receipts 6.391. Active at fully steady prices; fancy selections to $17.50 rather freely; bulk of voalers $13.00-16.50; throwouts $6.00-11.00. Sheep: Receipts 198. CHICAGO, May 18—U.D.—All new grain futures ruled firm at the celling on the Board of Trade today with the exception of oats which made fractional gains, New January corn reached its celling while March lagged if of a point from its 1.86% top.

May rye continued its uninterrupted celline with its 11th consecutive five cent loss. Old contract oats ruled firm and other old-style deliveries remained unchanged.

Trade in oats consisted of evening operations with cash interest apparently liquidating old style contracts and switching to August contracts.

Winnipeg rye was irregularly lower and grain futures on other U. S. markets were steady to weak with Minneapolis rye off another five cents.
