

'Leave Her to Heaven' Opens At Lyric Theatre on Monday

Filed in technicolor and bringing to the screen of the Lyric theatre one of the most terrifying low stories ever to be unfolded in film form is the picture "Leave Her to Heaven."

With Gene Tierney and Cornel Wilde in the leading roles, the film tells the story of a girl whose love for a man meant nearly a complete possession of his mind, body and soul. Gene Tierney is at her dramatic best and Wilde comes to the screen in the role which is certain to boost his film stock. Jeanne Crain has a fine part in this film, also.

"Gilda" with Rita Hayworth will be coming to the end of its engagement at the Quilna Wednesday, allowing only a few more days for folks to see the film. It gives Miss Hayworth one of her finest chances to prove her dramatic ability.

Margaret O'Brien takes Wallace Beery in tow in the film "Bad Bascomb" now showing at the Sigma. Little Margaret is cast in the role for which screen fans have been screaming and pleading since she became a star. Sharing the bill is "House of Horrors."

Joan Crawford and Zachary Scott have the title roles in the film "Mildred Pierce" with Anne Blythe in a magnificent supporting role.

Duncan Renaldo is walking away with the honors in "Cisco Kid in Old Mexico" now playing at the Allen. Sharing the billing is "Jade Mask" with that super sleuth, Charlie Chan, played by Sidney Toler.

Joseph Cotten and Jennifer Jones currently can be seen in "Love Letters" the dramatic portrayal of a girl whose memory has left her and who becomes shocked back to remembering the past. The film is at the Majestic.

Looking At HOLLYWOOD

with ERSKINE JOHNSON

HOLLYWOOD, May 20 — (NEA) — Jackie Coogan, the nearly bald '31-year-old "Kid," is back in Hollywood for a new radio show after warbling on a personal appearance tour.

"Oh, again to be the actor, with the help of Mr. Factor. Look what he did for Charles Boyer."

Also he says he's not sensitive about his baldness. Jackie wears a toupee for his radio show and personal appearances. "The Kid without any hair is too much of a shock."

At one time he tried all the anti-hair remedies he could find, but now, he says, "I don't worry about it." Even his kid brother, Robert, 21, just out of the Army, is starting to lose his hair.

"It's in the family," Jackie explained.

Next to show business—he's been in it all his life—Jackie's hobby is airplanes. It's more than a hobby, tho. He's in the business of reconverting and selling surplus Army planes. He learned to fly at 15, was a glider pilot in Burma during the war.

Jackie and the money he earned as one of Hollywood's greatest kid stars have been parted for some time (everyone knows the story), but he has one reminder of those lush days—a $30,000 16-cylinder Rolls-Royce convertible, vintage 1923. Jackie still drives it around Hollywood, getting something like 2 miles to a gallon of gasoline. He likes it, he says, because it brings back memories.

And that's all he has left of a $500,000 fortune.

Theatrical Debut

HELEN HAYES, act- of God baby will make her stage debut at the famous Buck's Country Playhouse in July, when Helen stars there in a revival of Sir James Barrie's "Alice-Sit-By-The-Fire." . . . Zachary Scott, who played a poor share-cropper in "The Southerner," is just the opposite in real life—a relative recently left him a 30,000-acre Texas ranch. . . . Roddy McDowall, now 17, will graduate from high school next month.

FDR Role Goes To Lionel LIONEL BARRYMORE, as FDR in "The Beginning Or The End," will get a going over from the makeup department. But his nose stays as is. The Barrymore nose is almost identical to FDR's. . . . Countess Mara, who has made a fortune with her exclusive ties for men, says that none of Hollywood's male heartbeats knows how to tie a correct knot. So she's coming to Hollywood next month to demonstrate the "Countess Mara Knot."

COMMUNIST PRINTING PLANT CLOSED BY AMG

SEOUL, May 20—(AP)—The American Military Government, champion of a free press in Korea, cracked down on a Communist publishing plant today. It was printing counterfeit money.

Officers closed the Chikazafa press on which the Communist party organ for South Korea, Hai Bang Ilbo, is printed. Some 9,000,000 yen in counterfeit notes already had been turned out there, military government officials said.
