

Listeners' Choice

SPECIAL EVENTS

- 1:25 p. m.—WIND—Baseball: Cubs vs. Cincinnati Reds.
8:45—WIND—Secretary of War Patterson addresses reserve officers.
9:00—WENR—Boxing: Beau Jack vs. Johnny Greco.
9:45—WMAQ—Mayor Kelly Reports on "The Chicago Plan."

VARIETY, COMEDY, AND DRAMA

- 7:00 p. m.—W-G-N—The Human Adventure dramatizes Lincoln Steffens' fight against municipal corruption.
7:00—WBBM—The Aldrich Family: Henry has another whacky adventure.
7:30—W-G-N—Voice in the Night: "Case of the Worried Corpse."
7:30—WMAQ—Duffy's Tavern, with Ed Gardner and Eddle Green.
8:00—WGNB—Northwestern Radio Guild presents final drama of spring series, Anton Chekhov's "The Three Sisters."
8:00—WENR—Alan Young show, with George Wyle's orchestra.
8:00—WBBM—It Pays to Be Ignorant, with Tom Howard, M. C.
8:00—WMAQ—People Are Funny, with Art Linkletter.
8:30—WBBM—Jimmy Durante and Garry Moore, with Dale Evans.
9:00—WBBM—Danny Kaye show, with Carmen Miranda as guest.
9:00—WMAQ—Mystery Theater: "Witness for the Prosecution."
9:30—W-G-N—Mystery House: "A Killing in the Market." [New day and time.]

MUSIC

- Noon—WAAF—Symphonic Hour: Beethoven's "Pastoral" Symphony.
7:00 p. m.—WMAQ—Highways of Melody, with Leonard Stokes.
7:30—WBBM—Kate Smith show. Guest: Elizabeth Scott.
8:30—W-G-N—Spotlight Bands: Harry James' orchestra.
9:15—WIND—Symphonic Hour: Grieg's "Peer Gynt" suite.
9:30—WWZR—Composers' Hour: Brahms' Trio No. 1 in B major.
10:00—WMAQ—Supper Club, with Joe Stafford and the Satisfiers.

Nannette Sargent, who plays the leading feminine roles in "Mystery House," which moves to Friday nights on the W-G-N schedule, beginning at 9:30 tonight.