

Young and Updike At It On Show Broadcast Friday

Alan Young tilts a nimble lance at opulent Hubert Updike's solid gold armor in another hilarious skirmish for the elusive hand of Betty Dittenfeffer during the Alan Young show at 8 p. m. Friday over ABC.

Behind the eight-ball with Betty's father, the young comedian turns to little David for solace but instead of help Alan receives a bad case of jitters from the small pranksters scornful snickers.

Tommy Riggs is almost carried away to the Great White Way when Betty Lou, his imaginary little girl friend, falls for a city slicker's patter during their broadcast at 7:30 p. m. Friday over CBS.

Their announcer, Don Wilson, returned from three weeks stay in New York, uses his best sales talk technique to describe his exciting adventures. Betty Lou wants a taste of the big town too, and poor Tommy has a hard time persuading her that the Hollywood life is just as glamorous.

A broken screen door inspires Henry Aldrich and his pal Homer to try their bungling hands at repairs during "The Aldrich Family" comedy broadcast at 7 p. m. Friday over CBS.

With Mrs. Aldrich up to her neck in spring cleaning and Mr. Aldrich involved in an important real estate deal, Henry and Homer choose an inopportune time to play repairmen. By the time they "borrowed" spare parts from sundry places, the police are alerted to a rumor of prowling thieves and Homer's dad nearly goes to jail.

4 GOOD REASONS FOR AUTOMATIC ELECTRIC COOKERY

- COOL: Electric heat applied directly to the Cooking Operation—at the Snap of a Switch.
- CLEAN: As an Electric Light, Pure Heat that Cooks without an Open Flame.
- CHEAP: Low Cooking Rate Available.
- QUICK: As Lightning, Modern Electric Ranges are Built for Speed.

FORTUNATE, indeed, is the woman who owns an Electric Range. She appreciates how true it is that the time clock guards your family's meal... controls the cooking-flavor and tenderness—and does it economically. The Electric Range owner has much more freedom from kitchen drudgery, yet basks in the approval of the family when the electrically cooked oven meal is served, complete from meat and vegetables to dessert, piping hot and right on the dot.

If you are not one of the lucky women who now own an Electric Range, plan to purchase one as soon as it is available. Ask anyone who cooks electrically—she will tell you that for economy, tenderizing flavor and automatic freedom from needless time in the kitchen, there is no better than an Electric Range.
