320 Apply for Truax Units

MHA to Select 99 Winners by Friday

The Madison Housing Author-ity (MHA) was informed by its executive director, William L. Frazier, Friday night that 320 applications for living units in Truax

Field had been received. Of these applicants about 60 live outside of the city. Friday was the deadline for filing applications for the 99 units some of which are to be completed the middle of June and the balance by the middle of July, Horace Wilkie, MHA secretary, said today. Frazier and Richard Andrews, a staff assistant, were directed by MHA to consider the applications board of adjustment and request the county zoning law be amended to permit conversion of more barracks on the field into 60 apartments. MHA has on hand sufficient funds to carry out this re-conversion program. The board also discussed the proposal to have the county board join with MHA in making application to the Federal Public Housing Authority (FPHA) for providing an additional 60 apartments at Truax Field.
