Two Films Bring Thrills To Lyric Audiences Monday

Coming to the Lyric theatre Monday are two films which will provide wholesome film entertainment for the whole family.

They are "Barbary Coast" and "Dead End" and bring fast action for those who prefer the western type and those who stick to the city Joel McGrea plays "The Virginian" in the film of the same name now showing at the Ohio theatre. How lawlessness was oppressed and the west became great, is the story which backs this truly ex-

Dick Haymes gives forth with the vocals and Harry James the swing orchsetral music in the picture "Do You Love Me" with Maureen O'Hara in the leading role.

Tom Breneman is the center of interest in the picture "Breakfast in Hollywood" based on the radio program of the same name. The film is currently co-featured with "They Made Me a Killer" at the Sigma theatre.

Bob Hope, Bing Crosby and Dorothy Lamour are the stars of the funniest of all their pictures together, "Road To Utopia" at the State theatre. Sharing the bill is "Gentleman from California." Mystery and suspense are the ingredients of "White Pongo." with Richard Fraser, now showing at the Allen theatre. "Lights of Santa Fe" is the co-feature.

"Girl Rush" and "West of Pecos" are playing at the Drive-In theatre, while the Gioria Drive-In theatre shares honors with "Tall in the Saddle" with John Wayne.

Heroic Marine Leader Married

RALTIMORE, June 3 - (INS) - Col. James P. Devereux, heroic commander who surrendered Wake Island to the Japanese, and Miss Rachel Clarke Cooke were married today at St. Ignatius Catholic church, Baltimore, with Chaplain Francis J. McVeigh officiating.
