Printing House Helps the Blind

Adds Braille Books, Records to Libraries

By DORIS SINGLETON (United Press Staff Correspondent) LOUISVILLE, Ky. — (U.E) — There is a large red brick building on the outskirts of this citynone - too - impressive looking structure, but one which turns out products which give "eyes" thousands of people over the world.

It is the American Printing House for the Blind, the largest of its kind in the world and the oldest in this country.

Currently, the printing house produces 250 titles annually in Braille and 120 titles in "talking" books, which are sent to 26 libra-ries in the nation and one in Ha-and records are produced except (WIBA): guests, Hildegarde and for the finishing touches. The Buddy Clark, vocalists; "Full Braille is prepared and proofread Moon and Empty Arms," "Pentby the blind and then the pages "The Gypsy," are run off at another building downtown.
