

Raft and Gardner Starred In State's 'Whistle Stop'

With a number of successful performances and return engagements to his credit, George Raft returns to the State theatre to add another to his long list in the film "Whistle Stop" in which he is co-featured with Ava Gardner.

The film tells of a small town to which a girl returns to see if everything is as it was before she left. Finding it thus, she seeks entertainment elsewhere. The conflict lies there and the two stars turn in masterful performances of the characters.

The Ohio "The Virginian" is a film which has stopped film fans from wondering why Hollywood turns out so many so-called horse operas, while noticeably neglecting the production of large-scale westerns. The cast alone is impressive enough to give any producer budget nightmares, without the additional expense involved in providing backgrounds that will put the film in the spectacle class.

"Do You Love Me" with Maureen O'Hara, Dick Haymes and Harry James brings some of the most delightful entertainment in the form of a movie musical comedy that Lima fans have had the privilege to witness in a long time at the Omega theatre. Plenty of fun is practically guaranteed for those looking for a good time while the romance is provided also.

"Breakfast in Hollywood" now at the Sigma theatre provides a treat for those film fans who go in for plenty of laughs. Comedians strive for many different types of laughs as they give out with their particular brands of humor. There is the sly, fast moving "gag" line, the situation comedy and "punch" line, and the more lighthearted, and for a different type audience response from loud and uproarious laughter to the quiet and inward smile.

Edwin G. Robinson, Joel McCrea and Brian Donley are cast in the film "Barbary Coast" with "Dead End" as the co-feature at the Lyric. Coming Thursday will be "Ambush Trail" and "The Shadow Returns."

"Isle of Forgotten Sin" is the name of the film at the Allen which stars John Carradine. Sharing the bill is "Mysterious Riders" with Buster Crabbe.

At the Drive-in theatres the current features at the Lima are "One Romantic Night" and "Counter Attack" with Paul Muni and Marguerite Chapman, while the Gloria is showing "China Skies" with Randolph Scott and Ruth Warrick.

KYSER IS FATHER
HOLLYWOOD, June 5—(INS)—Ray Kyser, radio's dean of the College of Musical Knowledge, today was the father of an eight-pound six ounce daughter, born last night to Mrs. Kyser at Cedars of Lebanon hospital. The mother's stage name is Georgia Carroll.

"You were wonderful," she told him. "It was a grand performance."

"But dear," he remonstrated, "I haven't been on the air yet. I won't go on for another five minutes."

There was a lame and loush pause at the other end of the wire, and then the wife said "Yes, dear, I know, but you forgot the three-hour difference in time."

"Typed" by Each Studio
Walter Catlett says that every studio in Hollywood had him typed for something entirely different. His schedule: M-G-M, costume, Republic, doctor, Fox, always a colonel; Universal, salesman, doctor, or promoter; Columbia, drunk, Warner Bros., department store owner or floorwalker.

In "Oh, Say Can You Sing," Universal has temporarily "cast" him. He plays a tycoon on the receiving end of a fast promotion scheme.

F. Hugh Herbert, the scenarist, relays this bit of nonsense about the kitchen-sink scientist who was reported to have devised a bomb more lethal than the famed atomic. Quoted about his branch, the screwball inventor said:

"Not only does my bomb spread death and destruction worse than the atomic bomb, but," he deadpanned emphatically, "it does it RETROACTIVELY."

Talking about a friend, Cootie Williams said: "I think he is an atheist—he's never seen a Bing Crosby picture."

Norths Go on Night Cruise And Solve Another Mystery

Spring and a full moon on the river! What a perfect scene for the Norths to take an overnight cruise. Their adventures will be described at 7 p. m. Wednesday over NBC on "The Adventures of Mr. and Mrs. North."

With Sgt. and Mrs. Mullins along, billing and cooing in Killarney brogue, all's smooth sailing on moonlight bay. Ten, by mistake, Pam and Jerry enter the wrong stateroom. Leaving, they innocently exchange another bag with their own. There's a storm aboard when they discover its contents. Instead of pajamas the Norths find money, $50,000 in $10 bills.

A young man's multi-million dollar inheritance provides a murder motive as his ex-chorus girl mother and a gold-digging waitress vie for his love and money in "The Case of the Baby, Cradle and All" on the "Mr. District Attorney Show" at 8:30 p. m. Wednesday over NBC.

Bob Crosby has invited Lauritz Melchior, one of his vocal colleagues from the "Long Hair" set, to drop in on his program at 8:30 p. m. Wednesday over CBS.

The Metropolitan Opera star will be assured of a musical time with program regulars Jeri Sullivan, the Town Criers and the Bobcats giving forth with melodies in the lighter vein.

Do Rolly Dunn, Cincinnati, youthful guest editor of Charm magazine, will have a fling at crime detection as a megarh sleuth on the "Elery Queen Show" at 6:30 p. m. Wednesday over CBS. Miss Dunn is one of 10 girls selected every year to be brought to New York as guest editors for the September issue of Charm.

Looking At HOLLYWOOD

with ERSKINE JOHNSON

HOLLYWOOD, June 5—(NEA)—Rita Hayworth has been shooting 16-mm. film with her own camera behind the scenes of "Down to Earth." One day she asked cameraman Rudy Mate to look at some of the footage during lunch hour. They ran several reels in a Columbia projection room, with Rita's dress designer, Jean Louis, as an audience of one.

Mate watched the film, then said: "Rita, you're a little over-exposed."
"Impossible," interpolated designer Louis. "All of Rita's clothes have been approved by the Johnston office."
Constance Collier was sitting in her dressing room at Paramount reading a letter postmarked London, when Betty Hutton stopped by. "From an English fan?" asked Betty.
"Yes, sort of," replied Constance. The letter was signed "Mary Windsor," who happens to be the former Queen Mary. She and Constance have been corresponding for years.

Sartorial Faux Pas
Ann Rutherford and her husband, department store owner David May, recently purchased a pair of those dress-alike twin-suits for husband and wife. The other day David packed his twin-suit and dashed away to the airport for a hurried business trip to Chicago.

The next day Ann received an SOS wire. David had packed his coat and Ann's skirt, instead of his trousers. She air-mailed him the trousers.

A few minutes before he was to go on the air in a radio show, a certain film star was called to the telephone at the studio. It was his wife, calling from New York.
