

More Fine Films Brought To Theatre Show Houses

Altho summer weather has arrived and the time for staving outdoors is the uppermost thought in folks' minds, movies still hold a place in the schedule of the week-end. The films provided this Saturday have both comedy and musical backgrounds, to say nothing of those which are tests of sleuthing abilities of film fans.

The Ohio's film "Two Sisters from Boston" provides both comedy and music in full force with Kathryn Grayson and Lauritz Melchior providing that of the operatic type and Jimmy Durante giving forth with music and comedy of the modern type. . . of that day, June Allyson and Peter Lawford provide the romantic angles of the film.

Pat O'Brien has the starring role in "Perilous Holiday" now showing at the Quilna theatre. Sharing the billing is "Talk About a Lady" with Jinx Falkenburg making up a film slate to please even the most particular fan.

"Badman's Territory" is the current feature at the Sigma theatre with Randolph Scott and Ann Richards; also "Ding-Dong Williams." "Whistle Stop" with George Raft and Ava Gardner; also "City for Conquest."

"Ambush Trail" and "The Shadow Returns" with Kane Richmond. "Gunsmoke Mesa" and "Forty Thieves."

"Murder, He Says" with Fred MacMurray; also "The Brighton Strangler" with John Loder.

"Gay Senorita" with Jinx Falkenburg; also "The Red Dragon" with Sidney Toler.

"Goin' to Town" with Lum and Abner. "Cat Creeps" begin Saturday.

"Saratoga Trunk" and "The McGuerins from Brooklyn" due Sunday.

"Sunbonnet Sue" and "Gentle Annie" due Saturday midnight.

"Yolanda and the Thief" due Sunday.

"Heart of the Golden West" and "Music in Manhattan" due Sunday.

"Johnny Angel" due Sunday.

Local Girl Appears Again On 'Chicago Theatre' Show

For a second time Harriet O'Rourke, daughter of Albert O'Rourke, owner of Lost Creek Country club and golf course, will be principal vocalist on the "Chicago Theatre of the Air" to be broadcast at 9 p. m. Saturday over MBS.

Appearing once before, Miss O'Rourke sang the aria "Polonaise" from the opera "Mignon" with Marion Claire and Richard Tucker, stars of the show in supporting roles.

She will appear again with Tucker in the duet from act I of Doinzelie's "Lucia Di Lammermoor" and "Indian Love Call" from Primi's "Rose Marie."

R. E. Gould, whose recent novel "Yankee Storekeeper" has won him wide acclaim from literary critics, will make with the panel of regulars on "Twenty Questions" the new quiz program which is heard at 7 p. m. Saturday over MBS.

Bill Slater acts as master of ceremonies, and the permanent members of the series include Fred Van Deventer, newsman; Florence Rinard, teacher and musician; Herb Poleste, director and producer, and 14-year-old Bobby McGuire.

Henry Morgan, zany radio comedian who wins friends by alienating people, will bring his high art of insult to the microphone at 8 p. m. Saturday over MBS when he makes a repeat guest appearance on the ad lib round table of romance show, "Leave it to the Girls."

Facing the star of "Here's Morgan" will be the regular panel of glamor girls. Actress Madge Evans; fashion editor, Robin Chandler; advertising executive, Eloise McElhone, and their guest "girl" of the week, the film and stage actress, Glenda Farrell.

FISHERMAN DROWNS
ST. CLAIRSVILLE, June 8.—(INS)—Piedmont Lake had claimed another victim today with the drowning of fisherman Jack Thomas Schlantz, of Neffs.

RULING IS MADE ON WAPAK FIRM

Wintzer Gains Right To Build Part of Proposed Plant

(Lima News Bureau)
WAPAKONETA, June 8.—The G. A. Wintzer and Sons firm has been given until July 1 to reply to a court order handed down here Friday by Judge Jacob T. Koenig.

The Wintzer firm, slaughterers, filed a motion to have an injunction restraining it from the erection of rendering and sewage disposal plants dissolved. Judge Koenig granted the motion with regard to erection of the rendering unit but not with regard to the disposal system.

A committee of farmers living near the location of the proposed plant filed original injunctions. They will have two weeks to file

"MURDER, HE SAYS"—This is the new screen contribution now showing at the Majestic theatre, and Fred MacMurray stars in the funniest role of his career. Above, he's shown with Helen Walker who's one of the strong supporting cast, which includes Marjorie Main, Jean Heather, Porter Hall, Peter Whitney and Mabel Targe. Dealing with a zany backwoods family called the Flemings, this fun-film is in a class by itself, according to reports.
