Tops In Entertainment Here on Screens Saturday E

There are plenty of movies for Lima fans to enjoy this Saturday and nearly all are top flight entertainment.

The Ohio's film, "Kitty" currently is creating a commotion as it reels it's way thru the camera onto the screen. Paulette Goddard and Ray Milland have the leading roles in this fascinating comedy set in 18th century London.

"The Renegades" at the Quilna is attracting plenty of attention, especially from those fans who take delight in a good Western This film is typical of the film old West and will strike a note of approval in the minds of all who sec it.

For mystery, "The Blue Dahlia" at the Sigma is the place for you. Alan Ladd and Veronica Lake are together in this film which tells of a returned serviceman who finds his wife no longer in love with him -later. dead. Sharing the billing is "Partners in Time" with Lum and Abner. Opening at the State Sunday will be the long-awaited return engagement of "Tomorrow Is Forwith Claudette Colbert, Orever" son Welles and George Brent. The film has a moving story certain to tug at the heart strings. "Man from Music Mountain" and

"Bewitched" are scheduled to open at the Lyric Saturday midnight and play thru Monday, Closing at the theatre after a successful run "Caravan Trail" and "A Wave, a Wac, and a Marine." "Contender" and "Bad Man of Thunder" with Dave O'Brien and Jim Newell, bow out at the Allen Saturday as "Tarzan and the Goddess" and "Sing Me a Song of "Tarzan and the Texas" come in to replace them Sunday.

"The Seventh Cross" with Spencer Tracy will open at the Majestic Sunday along with "None but the Lonely Heart." Both films will provide plenty of the best entertainment for the whole family. "Prisoner of Zenda" and "Adventures of Rusty" are due to open at the Lima Drive-In Sunday while "Muider, My Sweet" with Dick Powell, bows in at the Gloria Drive-In.
